Ike 'Wouldn't Call' Truman

'Nation Must Avoid Unjust Accusations'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has declared he doesn't believe former President Truman would knowingly do anything to damage the United States and. ersonally, he never would and. personally, he never would in the Harry Dexter White case.

For 18 minutes, Eisenhower talked at a news conference about the roaring political controversy touched off by Atty. Gen. Brownell's charge that Truman promoted White, a Treasury official, in 1946 after the FBI reported to the White House that White was a Russian spy.

* * *

THESE POINTS stood out:

1. Eisenhower confirmed he had advance knowledge that Brownell was going to talk about White and the Truman administration in a speech at Chicago last Friday. But, the President said, Brownell did not say in talking with him that Truman personally had knowledge of FBI reports on White when White was promoted.

Further, Eisenhower said he had told Brownell he would have to follow his own conscience and decide what his duty was. White House press secretary Hagerty had said last Friday Eisenhower told Brownell it was his duty to report to the American people.

2 Eisenhower would not have subpoenaed Truman, as the House Un-American Activities committee has done, and probably would not have similarly summoned Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark who was Truman's attorney general in 1946. The President said those were his personal views and that he was not telling Congress how to run its business.

* * *

AFTER A VISIT to the Truman suite in New York Harry Hershfield, humorist, said Truman said during some banter about the subpoena "they better be there on time because I will."

Hershfield emphasized the tone of his conversation with Truman was humorous. He said Truman had received "over 1,000 telegrams urging him to go down there and fight."

Eisenhower said he was not going to prejudice anyone's case but that neither was he going to be a party to rank injustice to anyone. He said that while the nation must exercise eternal vigilance against Communism it must avoid any un-American effort to accuse anyone unjustly.

The President's pronouncements delighted Democrats who have been crying "low politics" since Brownell first voiced his charges. Sen. Ellender (D-La), for one, called it "a courageous statement for Mr. Eisenhower to make."

* * *

IT WAS not immediately clear how much effect, if any, Eisenhower's pronouncements might have on the rush by congressional Republicans to bring the whole notable cast before them for an investigation.

Both the House Un-American Activities Committee and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee have moved toward inquiries.

Getting the jump, Chairman Velde (R-Ill) of the House group has issued subpoenas for James Byrnes, who was Truman's secretary of state, and Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, who was Truman's military aide, to appear before it Thursday. Velde has subpoenaed Truman and Clark for Friday morning.

Even before Eisenhower's statements, there had been the prospect of a fight in the House committee over its subpoenas. Velde had them issued without consulting other members.

Rep. Francis Walter, of Pennsylvania, senior Democrat of the group, said he was seeking to determine whether the subpoenas could be invalidated on grounds they were issued in violation of committee rules.

Sharply, Eisenhower took issue with Raymond Brandt of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch when the newsman asked a question suggesting the administration had pictured Truman as a traitor.

* * *

THE CHIEF executive glared at Brandt and told him he wouldn't answer that—that he rejected the premise.

One question was whether Brownell was justified in branding White as a spy after a federal grand jury in New York had investigated the official and failed to indict him. Eisenhower said he did not know the details of the matter.

Another newsman asked if the FBI didn't have a moral obligation to make public whatever evidence it has against White since its reports impugned his loyalty.

No, Eisenhower answered quickly, there's too much material, apparently meaning unevaluated material in all FBI reports to allow them to be made public in their entirety.

Anthony Leviero of the New York Times asked whether—if a grand jury has decided there is insufficient evidence against a man to indict him—it is proper for an attorney general to accuse the man of being a spy and accuse a former President of harboring him.

The President replied that he is neither a judge nor an accomplished lawyer. He added questions along that line should be addressed to Brownell.

Andrew Tully, Scripps Howard Newspapers, put in that the trouble is Brownell won't see reporters.

Turning serious, and tapping the table for emphasis, the President said he is not going to tell Brownell how to run his office.

Brownell, he went on, is interested in justice and decency and in cleaning up what he has got to clean up.

* * *

WE'LL SEE how he handles it, the President added.

In Chicago, Adlai Stevenson declared that to subpoena Truman and other officials "far partisan purposes" could "dangerously discredit orderly congressional investigation."

"We must distinguish between getting useful information in the national interest and heedless partisan showmanship," he said.

Sen. Joseph McCarthy (-Wis) said Truman has proven in the Harry Dexter White case that "he's a liar."

McCarthy also took issue with Eisenhower's belief that Truman did not knowingly appoint to office a man identified as a Communist spy. He said Eisenhower was simply "being a gentleman."

There was some doubt that Truman, Byrnes or Clark could be forced to comply with any congressional summonses to testify. Further, some Democratic members questioned the procedure of the House committee, headed by Rep. Velde (R-Ill), in issuing the subpoenas.

The New York Times, in a story from Washington by W. H. Lawrence, said the action in subpoenaing Truman "was taken on the individual authority" of Velde.

Byrnes Refuses Summons

Probers Will Come to Him

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Velde (R-Ill) of the House Un-American Activities Committee has wired Gov. James Byrnes of South Carolina that a subcommittee would go to Columbia, S. C., to question Byrnes about the Harry Dexter White case.

Byrnes had telegraphed Velde that he would not comply with a committee summons to appear before it in Washington but had offered to answer questions, under oath if desired, in Columbia.

Byrnes took the position that as a governor he could not be required to leave his state and remain in Washington at the pleasure of the committee.

* * *

VELDE, IN a telegram released by his office, replied:

"Your courteous telegram is more than appreciated. I feel that your suggestion that a subcommittee come to Columbia is an excellent one and will undoubtedly be adopted by the committee. A date mutually convenient will be arranged as soon as possible."

The summons followed statements by Byrnes, secretary of state for 1½ years in the Cabinet of former President Truman, that backed up Atty. Gen. Brownell's charges that Truman and top Cabinet officers were warned of White's "espionage activities" in 1946 before he was promoted from assistant Secretary of the Treasury to director of the International Monetary Fund.

* * *

BYRNES' TELEGRAM to Velde said further:

"If your committee has the power thus asserted, then at any time a majority of the committee declares, it could summon to Washington the governors of the 48 states and paralyze the administration of the affairs of the sovereign states.

"The chief executive of a state has many duties to perform. . .

"A governor must be the sole judge of when he can leave this state and he must be free to return without the permission of a committee of the Congress.

California Victory Pleases Ike

Makes Up For Losses Elsewhere

Compiled from News Wires

President Eisenhower said Wednesday he is pleased by the Republican victory in Tuesday's election in the 24th District of California.

At his news conference at the White House, Eisenhower noted witha smile that last week, after Democratic victories in New Jersey and New York, he had had to say that he wasn't completely happy with those results.

The California election put Republican Glenard Lipscomb into the House of Representatives. This means that when Congress meets in January the party standing will be:

Senate: Republicans 47; Democrats 48; independent 1.

House: Republicans 219; Democrats 215; independent 1.

The Republicans won with their backs to the wall. Democrats had taken five successive congressional by-elections this year up to Tuesday's California polling.

* * *

WITH ALL precincts reporting, an unofficial count of Tuesday's balloting gave Lipscomb 42,880 votes to 34,545 for Democrat George Arnold. Republican State Rep. John Collier, who stubbornly refused to withdraw in favor of Lipscomb, polled only 3,616, and Democrat Irving Markheim got 1,158.

The Republican victory, regarded as an upset by both parties, came on the heels of the sensational disclosures concerning the late aHrry Dexter White.

The news that White's disloyalty was allegedly ignored by the Truman administration came too late to be included in campaign speeches, and Lipscomb would not say whether he thought it helped his cause.

The 38-year-old Lipscomb declared that "even more important than the winning was the vote of confidence given to President Eisenhower and the 83rd Congress.

"This proves that the people are desirous of contining the administration's accomplishments of the last 10 months," said Lipscomb, who takes over the seat left vacant by Norris Poulson when Poulson resigned to defeat incumbent Fletcher Bowron for mayor of Los Angeles.

* * *

ARNOLD CONCEDED shortly after midnight. Republican National Committee Chairman Leonard Hall in San Francisco saluted the party enthusiasm and organization work which won the race and called it a "good omen for 1954."

"We are in trouble there," Hall had said only a few days ago in public discussion of the California contest. He and other party leaders had been frankly doubtful that the normally safe 24th District seat could be held for the Republicans in the four-way contest and with the national trend seeming to be against the administration.

The Republicans lost the governorship and a so-called safe House seat in New Jersey last week. Last month Wisconsin voters who never had sent a Democrat to the House chose one to represent the state's 9th District. Tuesday's was the sixth 1953 congressional by-election. Democrats had no difficulty in holding the Democratic seats in the first three: Illinois, South Carolina and Virginia.

Dead Man May Be One Hall Named

Crash Victim Like Long Lost Marsh

CLINTON, Ky. (AP)—A penniless hitchhiker killed in an automobile collision apparently was Thomas John Marsh, whose name figured in the Greenlease kidnaping case.

The victim went under the name of Billy Stars of Mexico, Mo., but his identification tallied almost exactly with that of the ex-convict once named as the killer of Bobby Greenlease.

The exception was this: Marsh's name was tattooed on his right forearm. On Stars' right forearm an old tattoo had been obscured by a fresh one.

The FBI hoped to establish positive identification through fingerprints.

Stars was killed Saturday night near Clinton. Later an unidentified woman telephoned a funeral home, inquired about tattoo marks on the body and expressed belief that Stars and Marsh were the same.

When Carl Austin Hall, 34, was arrested for the kidnaping of Bobby Greenlease at Kansas City, he declared Marsh killed the boy. Later, he exonerated Marsh. He confessed that he and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, 41, kidnaped the 6-year-old son of a millionaire Kansas City auto dealer, killed him and collected a $600,000 ransom.

Half the ransom money is still missing.

State Police Lt. James Mason said the Clinton wreck victim carried a wallet identifying him as Billy Stars, 45. Paycheck stubs indicated Stars had worked for a carnival and a Houston, Tex., construction company.

Armistice Celebrated In Lincoln

Pedestrians halted. Automobile traffic was at a standstill. Rifle salutes, boomed down O and bugles sent "Taps" out over the stilled morning air.

Thus Lincoln paused to commemorate Armistice Day at 13th and O.

The eight-man Veterans of Foreign Wars rifle team fired salutes and the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps played "Taps."

Rabbi Abba M. Fineberg, state American Legion chaplain, gave a prayer in commemoration of the signing 35 years ago of the document which ended World War I.

* * *

AIR FORCE and Marine Corps color guards displayed the American flag.

Lincolnites assembled along O as military officials were introduced and Nebraska Air National Guard jet fighters flew over.

Nearly 40 organizations participated in the annual Armistice Day parade, led by Col. Walter I. Black.

Marching near the head of the parade was a group of Boy Scouts carrying flags of the United Nations.

* * *

ARMISTICE Day was marked in Lincoln schools by the traditional minute of silence at 11 a.m.

Federal, state, county and city government offices were closed and no mail deliveries were made.

Among the groups meeting were former members of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, all World War I veterans

Seven of the nine remaining members of the Last Man's Club—organized by 14 physicians and a dentist who returned to Lincoln after World War I—were to hold memorial services for their deceased members.

The "last man" surviving is to visit the graves of the 14 others on Armistice Day.

Members of the club held a luncheon at noon and were to have a formal dinner Wednesday evening, with Dr. A. D. Munger as host.

Surviving members of the club besides Dr. Munger are: Dr. H. W. Orr, Dr. George Walker, Dr. J. E. M. Thomson, Dr. E. W. Rowe, Dr. H. E. Flansburg, Dr. George W. Covey, Dr. C. C. Hickman and Dr. J. J. Hompes. The latter two were unable to participate in this year's activities.

Mercury Will Rise Thursday

Thirty-three Hurt in Crash

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A crowded Pennsylvania Railroad commuter train derailed on a bridge over the Schuylkill River Wednesday, injuring 33 passengers. One of the derailed cars was cut nearly in half.

Twenty-two passengers aboard the Chestnut Hill to Philadelpha train were taken to hospitals. Four others were given first aid. No fatalities were reported.

The wreck occurred outside the huge 30th Street station, on a bridge difficult for the rescue workers to reach.

The bottom was ripped out of the first car of the eight-car train, which smashed into a concrete protection wall. The car scraped along the wall, churning up stones and ties for about 20 feet. A bridge girder knifed into the twisting car and out of the gaping hole injured passengers spilled onto the tracks.

The coincidence that the wreck occurred on Armistice Day helped keep the casualty figure down. City offices were closed because of the holiday.

National Road Group Elects Greenamyre

PITTSBURGH (AP)—J. Judson Morehouse, executive director of the New York Good Roads Association, is the new president of the National Good Roads Association.

Other officers elected Tuesday were:

Vice president, Ike Ashburn, of Texas; vice president, Henry Greenamyre, of Lincoln, Neb.; treasurer, G. H. Price, of Minnesota; and secretary, Edward Konkol, of Wisconsin.

'Frogmen' Can Stay Under 2 Hours As Routine Operation, Navy Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy says it is now a "routine accomplishment" for one of its "frogmen" to swim under water for two hours.

This was reported to the annual meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons by Capt. Charles W. Shilling, senior medical officer at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Shilling said that with the "potential enemy" able to outdo this nation in manpower and raw material, the Navy is vigorously planning for the launching of the first atomic submarine.

* * *

HE SAID two major research projects will be of special help in the operation of atomic subs:

1. The recent field trial at New London, Conn., known as "operation Hideout." This was a test of living conditions in a submerged submarine. Twenty-three volunteers spent two months sealed in a submarine.

2. Operations at experiemntal diving units at a number of Navy bases. Underwater swimmers equipped with feet flippers and breathing devices are going through extensive tests. The Navy calls the swimmers "frogmen."

* * *

SHILLING LISTED among some of their "routine accomplishments":

"They can swim under the surface of the water for two hours, at 50 feet depth for an hour. They can swim for a mile or more under water without resting. They can free swim to a depth of over 300 feet.

"They can leave a submerged submarine under way and can go, accomplish their mission, and return safely inside the submarine."

The experimental diving units are outgrowths of the underwater demolition teams which in World War II prowled about under water collecting information, repairing vessels and demolishing enemy installations.

Their work, Shilling said, will be even more significant in the era of atomic subs.

IN ANOTHER report to the association, Cmdr. Norman L. Barr of the Navy's Medical Research Institute said pilots of jet planes are now literally being wired for sound in an effort to cut down on air accidents.

He said a system of wiring has been developed which checks on activities of a pilot's heart, blond, skin, body temperature and brain waves. Thus the pilots are supplied enough information on their own conditions, Barr said to take corrective measures and prevent "blacking out."

Hall County Farm Bureau Seeing Regent About Mitchell

Regent Welsh Complains About Mitchell's Views

Special to The Journal

GRAND ISLAND—A committee of the Hall County Farm Bureau is planning to meet at 2 p.m. Thursday with Dr. Earle Johnson, University of Nebraska Regent, concerning the group's exception to price support views in an article by C. Clyde Mitchell, chairman of the Department of Agricultural Economics at the University.

While Mitchell had written in a recent magazine article that "for economic and political reasons America probably will have to learn to make fixed price supports work and work better," the Farm Bureau has adopted a view favoring flexible price supports.

* * *

EARL GLENN of Alda, president of the Hall County Farm Bureau, said no resolution has been adopted as yet concerning Mitchell.

He said a committee of three was appointed to visit with the University regents about Mitchell "and find out what we can on his views."

The committee includes Glenn, Charles X. Miller of Doniphan, who is the bureau's legislative chairman; and Glenn Rader of Trumbull.

Glenn said Mitchell's views on price support are the "exact opposite of ours."

Mitchell questions the sliding scale which the Farm Bureau supports. The Farm Bureau's stand is that if we're going to have price supports with 90 per cent parity, we'll have to accept regimentation. We don't think that is necessary."

* * *

IN LINCOLN, Mitchell, the author of an article titled "Let's Not Go Back to 1920" appearing in November's Cappers Farmer, said: "I prefer not to comment until I have a chance to find out what the points are in my article to which the farm group objects."

* * *

ON PRICE SUPPORTS, he said:

"Crop loans and associated production restrictions have placed farmers on more even terms with America's industrial economy . . . Farmers like fixed supports because they provide a solid basis for planning. I'm not too concerned over charges that 'the inefficient are rewarded' or 'the farmer is regimented.'

Mitchell wrote agriculture is more efficient because of fixed price supports because efficient farmers have been helped by stable prices as well as inefficient farmers.

He said "farmers have concluded that one of the freedoms they enjoy under production controls—a good price—is more valuable than the supposed freedoms they might have under an unsupported program."

C. Y. Thompson of West Point, president of the Board of Regents, said he had heard nothing of the Hall County Farm Bureau's action. He noted, "We can expect those things," but declined further comment.

Dr. Johnson said he didn't know anything about Mitchell's article, and B. N. Greenberg of York, also a regent, said he did not want to comment without studying the article.

School Tract Sold

Fire Asphyxiates Four Sisters

DAYTON, O. (AP) — Four sisters, three of them under five years of age, were killed Wednesday in a fire which destroyed their modest three-room house while their parents were gone.

Nancy Louise, 13, Linda Mae, 4, Sharen Elizabeth, 2½, and Linda Sue, 1½, children of Mr. and Mrs. Earl West, asphyxiated, Coroner Robert Zipf said. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Food Prices Rising

NEW YORK (AP)—Wholesale food prices which have been declining steadily since late summer are on the rise again for the first time in eight weeks, Dun & Bradstreet said.

At $6.50, the Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index for the current week compared with $6.48 a week ago and $6.30 in the same week last year.

Polio Virus Is Isolated, Identified

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — First "definite" isolation and identification of human infantire paralysis virus was announced Wednesday by a University of California scientist who said the development "is expected to speed up the fight against polio."

Dr. Wendell Stanley said the development paves the way for chemical analysis of the structure of the virus and thereby might conceivably lead to improved polio vaccines and possibly even to the ultimate development of a chemical weapon to treat the disease. The research is supported by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Stanley said two of his colleagues at the university's virus laboratory at Berkeley have obtained "the first photographs definitely identifying the human polio virus" and have established with certainty that it is a spherically-shaped germ about a millionth of an inch in diameter.

He added that the scientists were the first to distinguish—with experimental certainty—between virus particles and impurities accompanying them in preparations known to contain polio germs.

Stanley made the announcement of the virus identification at the autumn meeting of the National Academy of Sciences, convened at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

"Now that the virus has been identified definitely, it will be possible to analyze the chemical make-up of the disease agent and to determine many of its properties. Efforts to obtain larger quantities of the virus in pure form are already under way in Berkeley," he said.

"Also, if it is found desirable to use purer polio materials to prepare polio vaccines, the method developed at Berkeley may be useful. Vaccines currently being tested are composed of unpurified material."

The scientist said the Berkeley development was the work of Dr. Howard L. Bachrach and Dr. Carleton E. Schwerdt.

Pre-Bid Conference on Water Work Set

Erickson, Council to Meet On $4.1 Million Job Details

Preparatory to approving plans on Monday and asking bids on the $4.1 million 48-inch water pipeline from Ashland the City Council will confer Thursday at 2 p m with Public Works Director D. J. Erickson in order to have the facts and proper foundation for the contemplated action

Members of the Water Advisory Board have been asked to sit in at the conference

Plans call for opening of bids on Dec 10 Like the $6 million water revenue bond issue interest in the pipeline letting is unusual with requests for plans from points throughout the middlewest and even the West Coast

EACH BIDDER will have the option of quoting on three types of material Cast iron steel and reinforced concrete There are two general types of reinforced concrete both with a thin steel cylinder and concrete on both sides One is known as standard steel and the other as pre-stretched steel

The first and major item concerned in the big project is 108,400 lineal feet of 48-inch pipe or 20½ miles to be constructed on the south side of the highway generally 25 feet in from the right-of-way fence The right-of-way has not all been procured but there is ample time for this detail between now and bid opening A project of this type and immensity requires many peculiarized construction units along the way

THERE ARE for instance five 36-inch check valves spaced at uniform distances Other special features

Twenty five air relief manholes of concrete box type 7 by 6 feet inner dimensions These to be located at high points for the purpose of releasing automatically excess air

Twenty six blow-off manholes one at each low point along the line These to provide facilities for flushing and maintenance and repair

Thirteen access manholes spaced at two-mile intervals for entry and inspection

One 96-inch corrugated metal tunnel under the railroad track crossing possibly two of them

Five culverts in the Ashland vicinity where high hills and deep gulleys prevail

Diverting of 1,150 feet of the Dee Creek channel at a point west of Greenwood in order to clear the way for the pipeline The section of channel will be moved approximately 120 feet south of the present interference point This operation involves moving about 18,800 cubic yards of earth

The $4.1 million cost estimate is that of Black & Veatch engineering consultants Erickson may not he said, have his final estimate ready until shortly before Monday's council meeting

Grade School Classrooms Of Today 'Calmly Active'

By CLARKE THOMAS
Journal Staff Writer
Third of a Series

It was group activity but small-group activity One group of youngsters worked on a poster Another took up social studies One kid was correcting history-arithmetic papers

This was the scene in the Belmont school fifth grade room of Mrs Ruth Lederer of 240 So 48th

All seemed to be calmly milling around but in a subdued manner which seems to be the hallmark of today's grade school classroom

The youngsters at the art easel were working on posters for Thanksgiving

The social studies unit was reading from the book "Neighbors in Latin America"

ON THE BOARD was a lesson calling for division into syllables of the following words

Expecting excitement continued, conductor, contended, except conquered, controlled and express

Two girls wandered back to the book case to select books On the shelves were such old favorites as Stevenson's "Kidnaped" and Alcott's "An Old Fashioned Girl" and the new legends of the United Nations

MRS LEDERER said she doesn't break her class into ability levels except for reading

My theory is that in a skill subject it's best to give the basic ideas at one time and then work from that she explained

For the better students Mrs Lederer plans extra work

She said that at this age the better students are eager to have more work

Then as the school bell rang clanging an end to the day's studies the small groups broke up into individuals and students put on their coats to go home

Davis Says Security Only Aim of Probes

OMAHA (AP)—Amid the furore over loyalty investigations of government employees many people overlook the principal issue—the security of the U S government—Solicitor Clarence A Davis of the Department of Interior said Wednesday

In a news conference, the former Lincoln attorney said the issue in these investigations is "not to punish the individual" who may in the past have had communist associations but whether he should continue to be employed by the U S government"

Such a person might be subject to pressures such as blackmail and become a dangerous security risk, he said

Laurens Williams, president of the Nebraska Bar Association, had opened a discussion of constitutional rights under the Fifth amendment by saying that he felt that "in the main there has been rather full protection of constitutional rights" of individuals called to testify before Congressional committees but he suggested that this protection "should not be a barrier to the way of running the government

Davis referred to the recent suggestion of Attorney General Herbert Brownell that the Justice Department be allowed to grant immunity in some cases to obtain more complete information from witnesses

In PURSUIT of HAPPINESS

By J. GORDON ROBERTS

Twenty-two million new jobs must be created by 1975, in order to provide employment for the additional 22 million American breadwinners which our present population trend will have then added to our labor force

American enterprise must provide these new jobs

At today's $12,000 average investment behind each job, it will take some $265 billion of additional investment for plants, tools and equipment

Those billions must come as in the past from individual savings plus the plowing back of earnings by American business All this is possible only through government economy and a tax system that will permit a greater flow of individual and corporate income into necessary business expansion

Of course the tremendous burden of national defense must somehow be continued without internal collapse Internal collapse might conceivably be as devastating to our security as any other catastrophe which might befall us

I do not pretend to be any more of an expert on military defense than any other citizen without technical training in this highly specialized field

I wonder nevertheless, whether or not we might learn from Nature

In every respect the dinosaurs those unbelievably huge reptiles of the past were the most heavily fortified creatures the world has ever seen But with the exception of the turtle and a few others, these giants of the past are but a musty memory

The surviving reptiles are specialists A poisonous snake is very poisonous, indeed A constrictor has developed tremendous muscular power with which to crush its victims

Nowhere in Nature do we observe a snake which is slightly poisonous but can at the same time offer a troublesome but inadequate power to crush its enemies or victims

May we not attempt to develop so many lines of defense that we may develop none adequately while at the same time destroying our basic source of strength?

Our leaders require great foresight at this period.

New Generationte 'End of War' Slow to Celebra

By the Associated Press

Nebraska's observance of Armistice Day was a mixed affair

Some communities gave the day traditional treatment but in many it got only passing attention Several abandoned their usual observances altogether

Business places in some towns closed up for the day But in others there was business as usual.

The day marking the end of hostilities in World War I—the "war to end war"—apparently is seen in a different light by a generation which since has seen the end of World War II and currently is living in the midst of a truce in the Korean war

In Lincoln, state of government offices closed and service organizations, veterans groups and Boy Scouts paraded

* * *

AT YORK, Maj Gen Butler B Miltonberger (Ret) was to deliver the principal address at a program arranged by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and their auxiliaries

The North Platte soldier was wartime commander of the 34th Infantry Division and later chief of the National Guard Bureau

In Omaha, the Nebraska American Legion auxiliary planned to make the rounds of patients at the Omaha Veterans Hospital with gifts of silver dollars The gifts were made possible through the annual Poppy Day sale Half the proceeds of the sale go for veteran rehabilitation

Several football games were booked around the state

Nebraska City had its "Apple Bowl" festivities with six-man football teams from Elmwood and Sterling matched in the grid non attraction Crowning of a beauty queen was to be another feature

Grand Island stores did business as usual and City Hall offices remained open

In contrast at North Platte, city, county and federal offices were closed, along with banks and most business houses

Beatrice had a street corner observance sponsored by the American Legion and VFW

Avoid snarls and tangles

BY CAROL DOUGLAS

If the pleasure of a clean head of hair is ruined for you by tangles—you need Tame Tame is a marvelous new invisible hairdressing that makes your hair silkier, smoother, easier to comb Even when your hair is wet you'll find it remarkably free of snarls and tangles and ever so much easier to set.

The secret of Tame is in the application You don't smear it on You don't spray it on You rinse it on right after your shampoo. It covers every strand of hair completely and evenly with a delicate, transparent solution that's like nature's own oils Your hair is smooth and tangle free immediately yet never greasy or stiff Only the beauty shows

Tame takes the tears out of hair combing for little girls too No more painful snarls and tangles in their curls after a shampoo

Get a bottle of Tame Invisible Hairdressing at your favorite toiletries counter in 30c, 60c, or $1 00 sizes plus Fed tax

Gallup Poll

Sentiment Favoring Union Labor Reaches 16-Year High

By GEORGE GALLUP
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J.—Organized labor in the United States has more friends than at any time in the last 16 years, a nation-wide survey of American voters indicates.

The American Institute of Public Opinion asked voters at repeated intervals since 1937:

"In general, do you approve or disapprove of labor unions?"

The latest test reveals that three of every four voters questioned (75 per cent) favor the principal of labor unionism.

While sentiment in favor of unions fell off during the World War II years when frequent strikes in war industries irritated the public, there has been an upward trend in favorable sentiment since the war.

Interestingly enough, apart from manual workers, the greatest increase in favorable sentiment over the last four years is found among farmers and among white-collar workers.

For years the farm population of the country was hostile to the idea of unions.

Following is the trend of national sentiment since 1937:

	Approve	Disapprove	No Opin.
1937	72%	20%	8%
1939	68	24	8
1941	61	30	9
1947	64	25	11
1949	62	22	16
TODAY	75	18	7

The poll finds that voters who have had the most years of education are somewhat less in favor of labor unions than those who have had a limited education.

The vote today by occupation groups and by education:

	Approve	Disapprove	No Opin.
Prof. & Bus.	70%	23%	7%
White Collar	7[illegible]	13	6
Farmers	[illegible]	31	17
Manual Workers	81	13	6
College	69%	28%	3%
High School	7[illegible]	18	[illegible]
Grade School	78	13	9

Editorial Comment and Opinion

GOP Aroused from Apathy

The Republican victory in California, which even the Republican high command had not expected, vindicates President Eisenhower's refusal to panic after the reverses in the East, and his comment that he had lost skirmishes before.

It may or may not prove that Atty Gen Herbert Brownell's dramatization of the problem of rooting out subversives from government is vote-winning politics, although it does suggest that the repercussions from the attorney general's speech, widely headlined in California, did no harm with the voting rank and file.

But probably the real point of the Republican win in California is that whether by Brownell or whether by the losses in Wisconsin and New Jersey which brought forcefully to public attention the precarious thread by which Republican control of Congress hangs, California Republicans were aroused from the apathy and smug self-confidence that loses elections anywhere.

If this is the case, and the force of the lesson is not forgotten, the early warning was worth the price of a couple of seats in Congress.

A MOMENT'S THOUGHT

Mud Is Better Than Jitters

Not able to get to his office through the mud for three days (even the mails didn't go through), a busy New York business man didn't turn a hair, Because his office was no longer in New York on that day last spring, but had moved into the country in New England. Real country, that is, three miles from Hopkinton, N. H., and eight from Concord, the one in the same state, hence most of the employees commute. A red colonial farmhouse, about 150 years old, houses a research concern that tracks down trends for its member companies. A dozen statisticians and analysts work in a new Cape Cod office building across the road, in what was formerly a pasture, where horses still graze outside the windows. Their boss, a refugee from noisy Manhattan, told an explorer from the Wall Street Journal that "you can think a lot easier looking at an apple tree or a mountain than gazing out at 42nd street traffic."

Business is very good, and all that, but the founder's favorite boast is that "We never missed a working day from snowbound roads last winter." The concern has been there all the five years of its existence—the house happened to be for sale and the Chapin Hoskins liked it—and its other chief bragging point is that the personnel are no longer viewed as outlanders but as part of the community.

That is fast work and suggests Yankee blood in the firm. But business men from everywhere are beginning to find that their big need nowadays is to sit down, away from the distraction of their offices, and view their problems objectively. Science has long since verified, and run far ahead of, what any city worker knows about the painful attrition of noise, almost inhuman crowding, and the abnormality of spending most of one's waking hours as a member of a mob.

What poets and craftsmen and painters began long ago toward reclaiming much of played out and deserted New England may be accelerated by an ingress of tired and nervous city folk in flight from nervous breakdowns.

Tumbling Castles

Indianapolis Star: Something Tennyson wrote about "the splendor that falls on castle walls" was recalled recently while reading a London dispatch about owners of the more imposing structures who can no longer maintain them. Wrecking crews are reducing them to economical size. And, dropping with each falling brick is the exalted opinion some Britons have long held of themselves. As a recently reread letter put it, "It was never good times in England since the poor began to speculate upon their condition." The letter was written to George Dyer by Charles Lamb in December, 1830.

One of Nebraska's Founders

A history of Lincoln's early printing institinns in the Sunday Journal and Star mentioned the part played by the late Charles H. Gere. Founder and first owner of the State Journal Company, and first editor-in-chief of the Commonwealth and its successor, the Nebraska State Journal, Mr. Gere was a man of exemplary character and remarkable vision. His part in the establishment of Lincoln's mechanical printing plants is a memorable story in itself.

Determined to publish the first newspaper in Nebraska's newly-chosen capital city, Mr. Gere got the job done on Nov. 2, 1867, only 63 days after it was announced that the capital would be in Lancaster County at a new town to be called Lincoln. He had had to erect a small building here, and transport a second-hand press by wagon cross-country from Nebraska City. It was there that he had first published the Commonwealth, using the facilities of the Nebraska City Press. Two years after he moved it to Lincoln the name of this weekly was changed to Nebraska State Journal. When the Burlington Railroad reached Lincoln on July 20, 1870, the newspaper was made a daily.

Thus printing, communication, transportation and the pioneer spirit were all woven together into the fabric of early Nebraska. Mr. Gere was one of the real founders of the state of Nebraska, and a full participant in its early growth. His parents had come from the East and settled in Pawnee County; his father died at Table Rock. Mr. Gere had remained in the east to study law at Dickinson College and after earning his master's degree was admitted to the bar at Baltimore. He intended to practice law there, but during a visit to his widowed pioneer mother in Pawnee City he sensed the opportunities in Nebraska's development and decided to stay. The decision was an important one for Nebraska. For after a brief period of practicing law and service as private secretary to Gov. David Butler, Mr. Gere launched his newspaper publishing career. He served the state successively as legislator, constitution drafter and University Regent. For 37 years he was a statesman of the printed word, devoting both his time and the output of his typewriter to building "an house of state where men live well."

Brownell's Speech May Alert Country

WASHINGTON — Former President Truman should not have been surprised when he heard that Attorney General Brownell accused him of sending to the Senate the nomination of the late Harry Dexter White, for a high government post, even though the Democratic administration knew that reliable witnesses had said that White was a "Russian spy."

Lawrence

For the famous FBI memorandum, which not only accused White and Hiss of being a part of the Soviet spy ring in America, but named a number of others inside our government, was dated Nov. 25, 1945. It was followed by another memorandum on Feb. 4, 1946, two days before the Senate confirmed White, then an assistant secretary of the Treasury, to be U.S. executive director of the International Monetary Fund But the information was never sent by the Truman administration to the Senate Banking and Currency Committee which handled the nomination.

What is astonishing, however, is that Mr. Truman claims now to have "fired" White as soon as disloyalty was discovered. But, as Attorney General Brownell points out, when White resigned as assistant secretary of the Treasury on April 30, 1946, Mr. Truman sent him a laudatory letter of regret, and said "I am confident that in your new position (U.S. executive director of the International Monetary Fund) you will add distinction to your already distinguished career."

White's Record

White did not resign his subsequent post on the Monetary Fund, on account of any formal accusations before any loyalty board because there were none nor was he fired. He died without action being taken on the FBI report by the Truman administration.

Although Harry White is dead, two of his principal assistants, who are accused of playing an important part in the Soviet espionage ring, are alive and have already been questioned b ythe Senate Internal Security Committee. Both refused recently to answer questions on the ground of possible self-incrimination, claiming the privilege of the 5th Amendment. One of them even refused to tell the Senate Committee the list of his assignments—the jobs he held in the executive branch of the government both been questioned by the Senate Internal Sewas that of advisor to the secretary of state, George Marshall, in the spring of 1947 at the conference of foreign ministers in Moscow.

The list of influential posts held by the two assistants to Harry White is a long one, and it is obvious that White and his assistants had access to confidential information, not only in their own bureaus, but in other parts of the American government.

The first FBI memorandum of which Attorney General Brownell speaks was made available to the press on Aug. 24 last by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, but its text has never been published in most of the newspapers of the country. One reason is that the press associations missed the point of the story when it was first released. But there seems no justification for the failure of the press associations afterward to carry the sensational facts in the Senate Committee report when attention was publicly called almost immediately afterward, to the significance of the FBI memorandum. Some newspapers did reprint it subsequently in their Sunday sections, and some published it serially, but in most communities the Senate report still has never seen the light of day.

It would seem that Mr. Truman would have become aware of the importance of this FBI memorandum as early as 1945 when, as the Senate subcommittee says, it was distributed to him and key officials of the government. But if he didn't himself see it then, he might well have asked for a copy of the FBI memorandum when Rep. Richard Nixon of California, then a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee, made a speech in the House in 1950, quoting one important paragraph from the FBI memorandum, which he said then was in Mr. Truman's hands.

A False Argument

Many people do not know that the FBI cannot prosecute anybody unless higher authority in the executive branch of the government says so. Many people do not know also, that an earlier FBI memorandum on Alger Hiss was in the hands of the executive officials of the Democratic administration for many years before the FBI memorandum of 1945 and 1946 were submitted. Yet it was in 1948, when a House committee exposed Alger Hiss, that Mr. Truman called it "a red herring." This ought to dispose of the argument that "it can all be left to the FBI."

There seems to be a concerted campaign afoot today to discredit the work of congressional investigating committees, and also there is a crusade in some of the so-called "liberal" and "left-wing" publications to defend those who refuse to testify in answer to questions by congressional committees which ask if witnesses are now or have been engaged in espionage.

Attorney General Brownell's revealing speech may wake up the country to the insidious efforts of some "liberals" to smother the inquiries into Communist infiltration in our government. It also may bring about the publication in more communities in the land, where it has not appeared as yet, the full text of the Security Committee's report of last August which gives chapter and verse on the Communist conspiracy inside the government of the United States, not only in the executive departments, but inside Congress as well. It is by far the most sensational document ever published at the U.S. Government Printing Office in Washington, and sells for 20 cents a copy.

Anybody who has read that report will wonder why it required a speech by Attorney General Brownell to direct the attention of the country to these same facts about the Communist conspiracy in our government.

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL
— A Chat with the EDITOR —

An audacious move to interfere with freedom of expression by University faculty members, and to try to make College of Agriculture personnel voice the views of a farm special interest group or shut up, has come out of Hall County this week.

The offenders are members of the Hall County Farm Bureau who take issue with an article in the current Capper's Farmer by Prof. C. Clyde Mitchell, chairman of agricultural economics at the Ag College.

Farm Bureau vs. N.U.

The Farm Bureau nationally champions a system of flexible price supports, opposing rigid supports and the production controls that go with them. This is an issue of great national interest and concern, Congressmen sensitive to farmer opinion have developed over the past 20 years a system of fixed price supports with which the next session of Congress, under Republican control, is unlikely to tamper very much regardless of the views of the Farm Bureau and the melination of Secretary Benson.

In Capper's Farmer Prof. Mitchell took a look at the national farm program that has developed under bipartisan auspices in the last 20 years and concluded that it is essentially sound, providing a good base for future programs.

He criticized the flexible price support plan on the grounds that "no one has yet proved that farmers will make the economic response to price flexing . . . There is good evidence that most farmers will not. Much of a farmer's costs is fixed and much of his property is in sunk investments, in specialized equipment and skills, which force him to keep right on producing even though the price is falling."

* * *

You could put the whole Mitchell article, a dispassionate, analytical piece, into a speech by Rep. Clifford Hope, Republican chairman of the House Agriculture Committee who will do the real job of writing the national farm program, and Mr. Hope wouldn't know the difference, since it is what he has been saying for years. The Mitchell article actually doesn't go so far as Hope, or as the promises Dwight Eisenhower made during the campaign, or as Secretary Benson went (in a speech he didn't really believe in) this fall in Wisconsin.

* * *

The catch is it doesn't fit Farm Bureau policy, as the Hall County Farm Bureau was quick to detect. In a resolution this week it directed a Farm Bureau committee to call on the University Regents to see what could be done about shutting Mitchell up and to "take any further action they deem advisable."

* * *

I asked Charles X. Miller of Doniphan, Hall County Farm Bureau legislative chairman who frankly takes credit for the resolution, what was the thinking behind it.

"We don't believe in regimentation of farmers," he told me. "Mr. Mitchell's thinking is opposite to that of most of us—that is to the organization we represent.

"If he wants to promote that philosophy as an individual, O.K., but it's wrong to use the prestige of his office to promote what most of the farmers are opposed to."

I asked him whose views a professor was entitled to express and if it would be all right to express them in magazine articles and speeches if they coincided with those of the Farm Bureau.

* * *

He said "they shouldn't try to talk too much either way in that Department." But he added it was Mitchell's "philosophy," as expressed in Capper's as well as in speeches, that they really objected to.

I asked him wherein this Capper's article differed from what President Eisenhower, or Clifford Hope, had said.

"Well you know we don't go along altogether with Hope," he said. "If he agreed with Sen. Aiken, now that would be something entirely different." Sen. Aiken reflects the Farm Bureau position in Congress.

* * *

If Mitchell had written an article reflecting Sen. Aiken's views, I asked him, would the Farm Bureau have objected?

"Well, I'm not too sure," he said. "What he should do is just further the facts and let the people judge."

Did that mean a professor could not further opinions in writing, or speeches?

"That's right, no opinions," he said.

* * *

"The trouble is there's been so much comment about his department. Its teachings are clear over to the right," he added.

I asked if he really meant right, or left.

"Which do I mean?" he said. "Right or left? Well, you know, the way we don't want it to be. We think the Regents should do a lot of investigating of that department. It's so radically different from what it used to be under Filley"

* * *

I asked him what they would advocate as the next step, if a Regents' investigating investigation proved the department harbored ideas not in unison with Farm Bureau policy? Fire the faculty members?

"We'll cross that bridge when we come to it," he replied. "But it's something they should follow through on. Definitely."

* * *

The episode illustrates the extent to which some of the Farm Bureau leadership considers the land grant colleges to be their own private bailiwick. It explains some of the opposition, from outside the Farm Bureau, to allowing federal action programs like soil conservation, to fall under the wing of the colleges, inviting still stronger Farm Bureau pressure to control them.

* * *

It illustrates also why not long ago I criticized a move by the Chambers of Commerce to demand selection of a chancellor who would reflect Chamber of Commerce thinking. If a university is to be subservient to one special interest group, why not to another, and another—until its usefulness and its freedom are destroyed?

* * *

The issue in this case is not whether Mitchell is right or wrong, or his philosophy popular, but whether a University as public property is to be free to serve the whole public through the free enterprise and competition of ideas.

Crosby and Taxation

ALEXANDRIA — The Nebraska Supreme Court told Gov. Crosby that he had to enforce the existing laws on taxation, though previous governors had not been doing so. After some hesitation he has undertaken the job and has been in hot water all the time. Our tax system, the assessment tax system, is not a thing of horse and buggy days. It antedates the horse and buggy. It is a product of team and wagon days. It worked fairly well in those days. Not any more.

The governor, instead of trying to make an archaic system work, should be pointing out how unworkable it is, how unfair it works, how costly its complete administration would be and champion a better system. Over 40 years ago the people of British Columbia exempted improvements from taxation. Nebraska taxes improvements heavily and the moment a speculator gets hold of a good farm he destroys the improvements because under Nebraska law he gets more net return from an unimproved farm than from an improved one. Not excusing the speculator entirely, are not the people of Nebraska also guilty of wrongdoing" This is just one item. Our tax system is greatly in need of a thorough revamping.

CARY AURA

Looks Ridiculous

LINCOLN — Naturally the editor of The Lincoln Journal is entitled to his opinions as to the capability of Ezra Taft Benson as secretary of agriculture. Mr. Benson was appointed to that position by President Eisenhower and in the opinion of our very best farm leaders — from the conservative Farm Bureau and the Grange—he is doing a very good job. The same high opinion of him is held by many of the best informed members of Congress—witness what Sen. Aiken of Vermont, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said of Secretary Benson. Nevertheless. The Journal editor may be in possession of more information than those recognized farm leaders are.

But there is one thing The Journal editor does that looks ridiculous to me, and that is the regular "propaganda headlines" on the front page of the paper, tending to belittle Benson and the administration. That is not good, recognized editorial policy. Restrain your editorial opinions to the editorial page, and as Mrs. Alice Smith so correctly stated (Public Mind. Nov. 4), "Why don't you stick to your job of furnishing the public with a newspaper that is worthwhile?" Then the idiotic Gallup Poll! What is the sense of publishing that conglomeration of senseless figures that have been so thoroughly repudiated as a news medium by all thinking people? The Journal editor speaks of "conservation work" as though it is something the government must do. Read on page 7 of The Journal (Oct. 23): "L. C. Martelle, veteran Soil Conservation Service worker, told Dakota County conservationists there are five reasons why 'we don't have more conservation'—ignorance, laziness, selfishness, the habit of non-contour farming, and the John Q. Milquetoast farmers who are afraid to begin conservation practices." There is no disputing the above facts.

No matter who is secretary of agriculture, and how many various conservation set-ups he has over the country—it is up to the individual farmer to make what is preached a success. If he won't do it—and the fact remains that he hasn't done it as he should (on 40 million acres of Nebraska farm land one-fourth of the top soil has been lost in face of over 40 years of preaching by county agents and soil conservationists of ways top soil could be saved). Over 35 years ago, while publisher of a newspaper in South Dakota I would go with the county agent to farm meetings all over the county and hear him preach contour plowing; filling up gulleys to prevent the washing away of more valuable top soil and other systems to retain and build up the soil. South Dakota has a remarkable record along those lines, and the fighting farmers of that state have done it largely by their own initiative. Then too, they are back of our President over 80 per cent strong, as by a poll taken from the office of Congressman Lovre in Watertown. He said that he is finding increasing support for the President and his policies. A tabulation of the results of an 18 question poll in eastern South Dakota showed 83 per cent of those polled in favor of the President's domestic program, and 87 per cent with the administration's foreign program. Our great elder-statesman, former President Hoover, has endorsed Secretary Benson's departmental reorganization, and said that "it will give better service to the farmer," and "that those who have been critical of Mr. Benson's plan apparently do not understand it, or have a selfish interest in keeping the status quo."

Naturally the defeats experienced by Republican congressional candidates in Wisconsin and New Jersey mean trouble for the administration. But the kind of criticism expressed by The Journal the past few weeks will give aid only to the opposition, and strengthen the ADA and those radicals who are determined to make over our present form of government and substitute some foreign ideology—such as England and other nations are experimenting with.

INSIDE THE STATEHOUSE with Clarke Thomas

Can Crosby Say Anything New On Taxes?

Gov. Robert Crosby has shown a flair for the politically dramatic in calling a special tax meeting at which he has promised a "startling announcement."

TO LIVE UP to that promise may take some doing. It would seem that about everything startling there is to say about the Nebraska tax system has been said. But Crosby's announcement has undoubtedly stirred interest and speculation.

The possibilities for proposals he might make at the Nov. 20 meeting seem to narrow down to three. And you can find good reasons both for and against these.

He might (1) call a special session of the Legislature; (2) endorse a sales tax; or (3) make a move to live up to the principles of the present property tax system.

* * *

CROSBY HAS REPEATEDLY said he couldn't see what a special session of the Legislature could do unless it had a solid program. Presumably this is to come from the special committee on taxation set up by the Legislature. Possibly, he may have changed his mind and decided that thinking may have had a chance to crystallize into proposals the Legislature might act upon.

Thomas

Crosby, having faced down demands by groups and state senators that he call a special session, may decide to stay with that position. If so, he may be asking for trouble by calling in representatives from 40 state organizations for his Nov. 20 "announcement meeting."

Suppose Crosby comes out with an announcement that he is starting an "honesty in personal property assessment returns" campaign, backed up by legal action against "the worst offenders." And suppose a majority of those present disagree with his solution and demand a special session of the Legislature.

The governor was able to turn down such requests before. But when he has called a group of citizens together for advice, he could find himself in an awkward position if they counseled a special session.

* * *

THE LEAST LIKELY of the three proposals seems to be a sales tax proposal. For one thing, there would be no certainty that a governor's backing could win over the entrenched opposition which has formed through the years. Crosby has said enough at various times to indicate he doesn't think the sales tax is the "magic solution" some of its proponents claim.

Also, an ardent anti-sales taxer is believed to have increasing influence with Gov. Crosby. He is Owen Cotton, executive secretary for the Omaha Taxpayers Association. It is reliably reported that Cotton was offered the position of being Crosby's administrative assistant after Max Deuney decided to return tto his law practice at Fairbury. Cotton reportedly turned it down on salary grounds.

But it was Cotton who flew out to North Platte with Crosby when the governor faced the severe test of explaining at a public meeting to the "home folks" why his tax equalization effort raised real estate assessments in that city 207 per cent.

* * *

SUPPOSE CROSBY'S CALL will be for better enforcement of personal property tax laws. His views on this subject would seem to be pretty well known. Time and again he has pointed out that in many places the burden was placed on real estate this year because personal property owners didn't file complete returns. He has advocated that county assessors be appointed, not elected.

He might run into cynicism on this. For one thing, there is doubt even in state legal circles that anyone can be convicted of tax evasion under the loosely worded Nebraska laws.

* * *

THE BURDEN of proof would seem to be on Crosby, as the lawyers would say. He came through a set of hurdles set up by others at the North Platte meeting. Can he overcome those he has set for himself Nov. 20?

* * *

A DIET SLOGAN is to be seen on the window of one of the Department of Agriculture cars. It advises, "Eat beef; Keep Slim" . . . State employees, sensitive on the subject of days off, were reportedly unhappy with some newspaper accounts which said they were getting six extra days off this year. They pointed out that Armistice Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas are statutory holidays, that the Saturday after Christmas holiday granted by Gov. Crosby is only a half day and that the day and a half at New Year's aren't in this year at all.

* * *

CLOSER TIES between the Legislature and the office of Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck might be seen in Beck's newest secretary. She is Mrs. Charles Tyrdik Jr., whose husband is attending the University. Her father-in-law is speaker of the Legislature . . . Mrs. Gwen Hershberger will retire as Beck's secretary to return to Seward to start a family. Dorothy Jones takes her place.

ROBERT S. ALLEN Reports

Congress May Demand Unusual Probe

WASHINGTON—The mighty Federal Reserve System is headed for an unprecedented experience

It may be subjected to a tough congressional investigation — the first in the history of the all-powerfull banking organization since it was established in 1913, the year the Wilson Administration took office.

Allen

Plans are all set to demand the unusual probe soon after Congress reconvenes in January.

This drive will be spearheaded by Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex), a senior member of the House Banking Committee, a long-time champion of little business and a militant foe of "Wall Street".

Patman, serving his 25th consecutive year as a legislator, says he has potent backing in both branches of Congress.

He claims a majority of his committee favors the investigation, plus a number of leaders. He lists among the latter, Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex), former speaker, and Sens. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) and Robert Kerr (D-Okla), members of the Senate Banking and Finance Committee,s respectively.

At various times in the last few years they have been sharply critical of Federal Reserve policies.

In 1951, Sen. Douglas conducted a long series of hearings on dealings between the Treasury and Federal Reserve; the following year, Patman made another thorough study of these operations.

NOTE: On the Senate side, a group headed by Kerr is planning to challenge the appointment of W. Randolph Burgess as deputy to the secretary of the treasury. The attack will be based on two arguments: That, although Burgess is holding a key policy job, his name has never been submitted to the Senate for confirmation, and he has not been required to divest himself of large New York bank holdings.

* * *

WHAT'S BEHIND IT—Patman's demand for an investigation of the Federal Reserve System will be predicated on a series of charges.

Patman's bill-of-particulars will stress three points:

No official audit has ever been made of the Federal Reserve System throughout its 40 years' existence.

The System's Board of Governors has refused to turn over to Congress a private audit made last year. It is claimed that secret audit revealed a number of "undesirable" situations, of which some have not yet been remedied.

Numerous big increases in salaries have been granted in recent months. It is asserted that in some instances these raises have been as high as 100 per cent; from $30,000 to $60,000.

Also likely to be brought out in a probe is the fact that Reserve Chairman William McC. Martin Jr. is a brother-in-law of British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins. They married daughters of the late Dwight Davis, secretary of war in the Coolidge cabinet.

"Competition must be keen" Meyer commented

Certain types of contests door prizes and drawings are banned by Nebraska's law prohibiting lotteries, he explained

The fact that a person is obliged to enter a store to register for a drawing, even though he is not obliged to make a purchase, makes a plan illegal under Nebraska law, Meyer said

But a gift to the person making the most purchases at a sale was held to be legal, he added

Man Jailed, Fined On Delinquency Count

Noting that the defendant had a Municipal Court record of 42 convictions, 40 of them for drunkenness," Lancaster County Judge Herbert A Ronin sentenced a West Lincoln man to two months in county jail and fined him $100 for contributing to the delinquency of a minor

The man, Orville L Bueoy, 46 pleaded guilty to the contributing charge

Judge Ronin was told that Bueoy had made lewd remarks to an 8-year-old girl

EXTENT OF RECOVERY DETERMINED — Dr Frank Stone (right) is examining Linda McMahan 7 at Randolph School after a cast had been removed from her leg. Dr Stone orthopedic consultant for handicapped children in the public schools will prescribe exercises for Linda's rehabilitation and her training to normal work and play at school and at home. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs L. McMahan of 4121 Starling. Behind Linda is Jack Parker 8 son of Mr and Mrs W W Parker of 936 Clark who is walking on crutches after recovering from an attack of polio Dr Stone will help Jack strengthen his muscles to permit him to participate in as much normal activity as his physical condition will permit Assisting Dr Stone is Miss Dago thy Engstrom of 1225 Washington This demonstration was part of the National Education Week observance in the Lincoln Schools to show the normal handling of children in the schools who are recovering from injuries or crippling disease (Journal Photo)

Hereford Auction 'Best This Fall'

ALLIANCE (AP)—Prices at the Tri-state Polled Hereford Association sale here weren't up to Ted years by any means but two authorities said the prices paid here made the sale the best auction of Polled Herefords in the country this fall.

Top bull in the show consigned by Podolak Polled Hereford Ranch of Lusk Wyo was sold to Kleppe Hereford Ranch of Dawson S D for $2 100

The champion heifer owned by C H Greenwood of White Clay, Neb , was sold to Gov Dan Thornton of Colorado Thornton's agent paid $1 500 for the animal

The description of the prices paid here came from Glen Kruescher of Lincoln representative of the American Polled Hereford Association and Neil Stinson, an Oklahoman representing the publication Polled Hereford World

The 59 bulls sold brought an average of $473 The 28 heifers averaged $403

First Moves Make or Break Violent Death Investigations

"Twenty per cent of persons that die under circumstances that require an official inquiry into the cause of death."

This statement by Capt Harold Smith of the Nebraska Safety Patrol set the stage for his address to the attending persons at the second annual conference of the Police Officers Association of Nebraska at the Lincoln Hotel Tuesday morning

* * *

STRESSING the importance of gathering all the details when investigating a violent death, Smith said that "an investigating officer crosses three bridges during the investigation and burns each bridge after he has crossed it.

The three bridges he said are the removal embalming and burial of the body He explained

Crosby said this was "commendable" because there had been "considerable gambling" in Nebraska before a crackdown in recent years

'48 Opinion Reply To Tax Claim

A 1948 Attorney General's opinion is the answer to a Los Angeles insurance company's claim it should not be taxed in Nebraska on a par it furnishes its agent at Grand Island Asst Atty Gen Bert Overeach said

The insurance company claimed the city was not taxable because of a 1917 state law which imposes a $20 annual license fee on such concerns plus 2 per cent of premiums or deposits received from Nebraska in lieu of all other taxes

Hall Co Atty Donald Weaver wrote the California company this section applied only to intangibles and not to care of fice fixtures and other such tangible personal property it might own in Nebraska

A similar question arose in Douglas County in 1948 The Nebraska Attorney General's office then issued an opinion along the same line as Weaver's reply to the California company

Marine Bombers Killed 13 GIs

Inquiry Places Blame for Error

TOKYO (AP) — Gen. John Hull's headquarters has announced it was planes of the U.S. 1st Marine air wing that accidentally bombed a frontline artillery position in Korea Jan. 8, 1953, killing 13 American soldiers and wounding nine.

It was the first official statement fixing responsibility for the mistake bombing.

The Far East command issued a brief statement saying a joint investigation had found Marine planes were involved in the accident after U.S. Army headquarters in Washington—in a rebuttal of correspondents' criticism of military censorship in the Far East—said the report of the investigation was available at Hull's public information office.

Press reports at the time of the accidental bombing said 14 Americans were killed.

The Army at that time announced that an investigation would be conducted.

In the ensuing months correspondents who asked for the results always were told they were not available.

The Far East Command public information office released the following statement:

"In reply to your query, an intra-service board including officers of the U. S. Army, Air Force, Navy and Marine Corps completed an investigation which concluded that aircraft of the 1st Marine wing were involved in the accidental bombing of Jan. 8, 1953. It was this incident in which 13 men of a field artillery battalion were killed and nine were wounded at a service battery position in the U. S. First Corps area in Korea."

Pistol Shoot Planned

FALLS CITY (AP)—The annual Farmer-Merchant banquet has been scheduled for Nov. 19 here, with a pistol-shooting demonstration one of the top attractions.

Kidnaper Deeds Farm To Aunt and Attorney

ST. JOSEPH, Mo —Life interest in a 316-acre farm near Maryville, Mo, has been deeded to an aunt, Mrs Nellie Baker, by Mrs Bonnie Emily Heady confessed abductress of Bobby Greenlease, the St Joseph Gazette reports

The deed to the prope ty will go to Mrs Heady's attorney, Harold Hull of Maryville after Mrs Baker dies Hull represented Mrs Heady when she was arraigned in Kansas City Federal District Court

THERE WERE no revenue stamps affixed to the deed and the value of the farm was not indicated In 1949 it was appraised at $39,500

Described as 'above average," the farm is located 16 miles north of Maryville on Highway 71 About 120 acres were planted in corn this year and another 40 in popcorn Marvin Johnson has operated the farm on a lease partnership with Mrs Heady since March 1

MRS. HEADY inherited the farm following the death of her father, French P Brown in 1949 It has been farmed by tenants since that time

On the property are a house occupied by Johnson and other buildings The home occupied by the Brown family for a number of years was destroyed by fire last Feb 18 A barn since has been constructed at the old home site

Magsaysay Leading in Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Husky Ramon Magsaysay, 46, popular former defense minister, held a 3-1 margin over President Elpidio Quirino and appeared certain to become the third president of the Philippine republic.

Counting of ballots from Tuesday voting proceeded in orderly fashion despite official fears of new violence after nine persons were killed in election day terrorism.

An unofficial tabulation made by a Manila radio station gave Magsaysay, the Nacionalista party candidate, 1,010,310 votes to 310,348 for the 62-year-old Quirino, standard bearer for the Liberal party. Complete returns were not expected until Friday.

In the vice presidential race, early incomplete figures from all but one of the Philippines' 52 provinces gave Magsaysay's running mate Carlos Garcia 551,265 votes to 266,474 for the Liberal party's Jose Yulo.

Magsaysay and his running mates amassed a big lead in Manila. With the votes from all but 110 of the 1,045 precincts in the city counted the official tabulation was: Magsaysay 161,842, Quirino 39,592, Garcia 145,552 and Yulo 51,864.

In the campaign Magsaysay accused Quirino of wholesale corruption in his government. Quirino countered that he had improved the economy of the republic and asked re-election to carry out his policies.

The Nacionalista candidate is credited with being the man who broke the back of the Communist Hukbalahap movement. The 'Huks' were driven by Magsaysay to the fringes of the islands and gave their political support to Quirino.

Wed in Autumn Ceremonies

Mrs. Kerry E. Leggett

ORD—Miss Rosalie Theresa Blaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Blaha, became the bride of Kerry Eugene Leggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Leggett, at a double ring ceremony in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church on Oct. 31. The Rev. Thomas Siudowski officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant gown of satin, lace and net, designed with a portrait neckline and a brief jacket.

Miss Dorothy Blaha was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Marlene Norman was bridesmaid.

The bridegroom's attendants were Allen Blaha and Richard Anderson. Ushers were Jack Randecker of Lexington and Carl Webber Jr. of Kearney.

The couple will live in Kearney where Mr. Leggett is attending Kearney State Teachers College.

Mrs. Miley F. Schlake

PICKRELL—Miss Arlene Buss, daughter of Herman Buss, became the bride of Miley D. Schlake, son of Miley F. Schlake of Cortland, on Oct. 25 at the Zion Lutheran Church. Pastor John Hieronymus officiated at the 6:30 p.m. ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle and lace over satin. A ruffled yoke trimmed the fitted bodice and the full skirt sweeping into a court train was accented with a ruffle of lace from the waist in an apron effect. Her double tiered veil of sheer illusion was held by a half-hat of lace and orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Miss Elaine Geisman of Beatrice was the maid of honor, and Miss Ruth Ewers of Cortland and Miss Mary Lou Schuster of Beatrice were bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore blue, and the bridesmaids nile green, net over taffeta frocks with matching velvet trim. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Miss Darlene Buss and Miss Marilyn Buss, the bride's sisters, lighted the candles, Arliss Ideus of Adams was flower girl, and Richard Boss, ringbearer.

Leland Schlake of Cortland was the best man and ushering were LeRoy Schlake and Dallen Boss.

A reception was held in the parish hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlake are at home at 700 Garfield, Lincoln.

Mu Phi Epsilon Anniversary

Active and alumni members of Mu Gamma chapter, Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority will honor their founders at a formal banquet at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Lincoln Hotel.

Mary Gordon

Mother Won't Let Girl, 15, Go With Boy

Dear Mary Gordon: I am a boy aged 15 and I want to take a girl from my class to a movie some Saturday afternoon. But she says her mother won't let her go, for another year. Most of the kids do go to shows together, even in the evening.

My mother thinks it's all right if we go. Do you think it would do me any good to ask the girl's mother? We have been living near each other ever since we were kids and I can't see why her mother objects. —Dick.

Answer: It couldn't do any harm to ask the girl's mother for her permission but I doubt if it would do any good. Maybe if you would get up a small group of couples to go together, the mother wouldn't mind so much.

Personally, however, I agree with the mother. Sixteen is young enough to start going out in couples. —M. G.

Miss Steele Is Denver Bride

Mrs. Paul Schaefer

Miss Joyce Steele, daughter of Mrs. Cleda Steele of Denver and the late George W. Steele, became the bride of Paul A. Schaefer, son of Mrs. L. H. Schaefer and the late Mr. Schaefer of St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 14 at St. Vincent de Paul Church in Denver.

Given in marriage by an uncle, John R. Steele of St. Louis, Mo., the bride wore a street-length dress of blue rabbit hair wool with a navy blue velour hat. She carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow mums, croton leaves and white orchids.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Warren Watson of Lincoln, and Homer E. Reed of Denver. James Schaefer, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Following a brunch at the home of the bride, the couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans, Miami and Nassau. They will make their home in Denver.

Mrs. Schaefer attended the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Alpha Phi Sorority. Mr. Schaefer attended schools in St. Paul, Minn.

Corn Fritters

Try these delicious easy-to-make corn fritters on a menu when you're serving ham. Combine 1 cup cooked whole kernel corn with 2 tablespoons chopped green sweet pepper, ¼ cup chopped ripe olives, salt and pepper to taste and 1 lightly beaten egg. Drop mixture by spoonfuls into hot greased frying pan and brown until crusty on both sides.

Tip on Storage

Gold or silver articles placed in a closet lined with aromatic red cedar should be wrapped carefully. Such items may tarnish if directly exposed to the pleasing fumes of the cedarwood oil, so effective in killing moth larvae.

Before the Ball Party Given by Glatzes

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glatz entertained in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Max Merritt and Comdr. and Mrs. Conrad Fisher at a small informal party preceeding the annual Birthday Ball of the USMC which was held in the ballroom of the Lincoln Hotel.

Tasty Spread

Soften liverwurst with a little mayonnaise and catchup and serve as a spread for potato chips, melba toast or crackers. Men usually go for this combination, so it's a good spread to have on hand when father's having a party.

'Man Friday' Appeals Case For Bequest

The State Supreme Court was asked to overrule a lower court's decision in a case involving two brothers, one of whom said he was a "Man Friday" for the other.

John Peterson appealed to the high court from a Douglas County District Court decision.

He said in a brief that for 38 years he assumed a "personal and domestic relationship" with his brother Ed, serving him as a waiter, cook, bartender and traveling companion.

John alleged he lost a leg while working for his brother in 1931 and at that time he and Ed entered into an oral agreement under which John would not file claim for compensation because of this injury.

Also under terms of the agreement, John alleged, he would be a companion to his brother for the remainder of Ed's life. In return John would receive food, shelter and clothing and a substantial bequest in Ed's will, according to the brief.

But the brief said that Ed, who died in 1951, left practically his entire estate to Robert G. Peterson and Ellen Peterson, children by Ed's second marriage.

John Peterson's attorney's ask a judgment for "upwards of $40,000 or $50,000" and said that "undisputed testimony" showed that Ed agreed to pay his brother $250 a month after Ed died or give him a farm worth about $80,000.

A Douglas County District Court, however, ruled that John and his brother did not enter into a binding oral contract, and John Peterson appealed.

Reward Offered For Missing Omahan

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A $500 reward was offered for information as to the whereabouts of Clarence E. Lear, 27-year-old bank clerk who disappeared mysteriously early last Wednesday at Thornton Beach.

Lear of Omaha, Neb., vanished in the darkness while helping Irene Taverner climb a cliff on the San Mateo County coast.

The reward was offered by three of the bank clerk's friends —Fred Crowley, Don Baker and Keith Rockwell. Crowley was with Lear and Miss Taverner on the trip to the coast.

JAYNE'S P-W tablets KILL PIN-WORMS
(You may have them and not know it)

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Connor Probable Starter Against Colorado Buffs

By WALT DOBBINS
Journal Sports Editor

Ted Connor has been listed as a probable starter in the Colorado game Saturday.

That was the best news coming out of the Husker grid camp as Bill Glassford prepped his varsity for the invasion of the Buffs in the annual Homecoming Day classic.

"Our doctors say Ted should be ready," Coach Glassford stated," although he will not be permitted to do any heavy duty work until game time."

The status of Max Kitzelman who has been out with an injured ankle remained somewhat in doubt although the cast has been removed.

• • •

"RIGHT NOW, I'll say the same boys who started against Iowa State last week will get the nod Saturday," Glassford indicated.

The first string that worked out in sweat clothes Tuesday included Andy Loehr and Bill Schabacker, ends; Bill Holloran and Jerry Minnick, tackles Jerry Paulson and Bob Wagner, guards; Bob Oberlin, center; John Bordogna, quarterback; Bob Smith and Jon McWilliams, halfbacks and Ray Novak, fullback.

Connor, if ready, will replace Holloran although the latter did a bang-up job against the Cyclones.

There was no rough work attempted in the workout but Wednesday group work with pads will be in order.

"We expect to have our hands full with Carroll Hardy and Frank Bernardi," the Husker mentor declared.

Colorado's starting backfield is expected to include Rog Hunt at quarterback; Hardy and Bernardi, halfbacks and Emerson Wilson at fullback.

Officials for the game will be Ron Gibbs, nationally known referee; Lou House, umpire; J. Earl Schlupp, linesman and Jim Wilcoxen, field judge.

Nebraska officials estimate a crowd of 36,000 depending upon the weather.

Official Nebraska statistics including the eight games played to date show the Huskers with three ball carriers who have averaged slightly better than five yards per try. They are Dennis Kominek 316 net and 5.9; Smith, 531 yards net and 5.8 and McWilliams, 179 yards net and 5.6 average.

Loehr is the top pass receiver, handling 15 for 172 yards while Schabacker has gathered in 12 for 168 yards.

As a team the Huskers have gained a total of 1,312 net yards by rushing and 675 yards via the air lanes. They have been outdowned by opposing elevens, 92-65 and outyarded by 434 yards.

LINCOLN 1, NEB., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1953—P.M.

THUNDERING BUFFALO—One of the linemen making way for a fine group of backs is Colorado's five-foot, 10-inch, 200-pound guard, Bill Fisher. Fisher hails from Pueblo, Colo., and is a starter on Coach Dal Ward's victory-hungry Buffs. He is expected to open against NU here Saturday. (Photo Special to The Journal.)

No Changes in Public School Coaches Now, Says Watkins

There may be a series of changes in the coaching ranks in the Lincoln public schools within the next two years, but, according to Superintendent of Schools Steven Watkins, nothing has been done to date in this respect.

Watkins said he is "highly in favor of a teacher being head coach of just one major sport." If such a plan were put into effect several openings could be created at Lincoln High, Northeast and the new Southeast High, due to open in 1955.

Rumors had been circulating about immediate changes in coaching personnel, but Watkins said he knew nothing about these reports.

"Often I am the last person to hear of such talk, but I know of no action in this regard," he said.

One rumor had Ed Schwartzkopf, assistant football coach at Lincoln High, assuming head football coaching duties at Northeast High. Another rumor had Max Hester, assistant grid coach at Northeast, being named head coach at Southeast when that school was completed.

• • •

PRESENTLY there are two teachers in the Lincoln public school system that have dual head coaching positions, a situation that would be changed if Watkins' plan were effected.

Bun Galloway is both head football and track coach at Northeast. Tom Gillaspie is head coach of the same sports at College View. Bill Pfeiff of Lincoln High was head coach of both track and football until Harold Scott was appointed to direct the cinder activities.

Other coaching positions will open up when the sports program at Northeast is expanded. The Rockets will compete in swimming and baseball for the first time this season. They also may add wrestling to their interscholastic athletic activities, Watkins reported.

Southeast, when completed, will have an athletic program that will include the major sports — football, basketball, track and baseball—plus swimming, wrestling, golf, tennis and gymnastics.

• • •

WATKINS said that all coaches in the public school system are hired as full-time teachers and that the coaching assignments are extras for which they receive additional pay.

He said that a teacher may be assigned to any school within the system.

The sports programs at the public schools is co-ordinated by Ralph Beechner. Watkins said that he was "very happy with Mr. Beechner's work as co-ordinator.

"He has done much to bring the schools together," he said.

• • •

ROBERT Venner, head of the board of education, joined Watkins in saying that he knew of no action that would effect coaching personnel this year.

Venner said that the addition of so-called minor sports to the overall athletic picture has been discussed.

In addition to Southeast High, Watkins said he hoped that construction of the Activities Building to be built south of Lincoln High would be completed by 1955.

Plans for a high school football stadium are still undecided, pending a decision on the location of the city auditorium.

JOHNNY LATTNER

Lattner Back Of Week for Upset Save

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame's All-America Johnny Lattner gets this week's call as Associated Press Back of the Week for his performance against Pennsylvania last Saturday.

Stanford's Bob Garrett, Jimmy Wade of Tennessee, Larry Grigg of Oklahoma and Bobby Cavazos of Texas Tech, were tabbed for standout performances Saturday. But none could match Lattner.

Lattner's one-man job made the difference between a victory for the nation's No. 1 college team and a shocking upset.

After Penn scored first, Johnny carried back the next kickoff 92 yards for the tying touchdown. He engineered another Notre Dame score, first by running back a punt 32 yards and then by snatching a pass out of the hands of two Penn defenders. He raced 56 yards with another kickoff to set up a third score.

With Penn's second half comeback threatening to take the game, Lattner snatched a pass right out of Bob Felver's hands on the goal line to save Notre Dame's eight-point margin.

NFL Playoffs To Decide Tie

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Commissioner Bert Bell said Wednesday a tie in the western conference of the National Football League would be settled in the play-offs, details of which will be determined at a meeting on Nov. 23.

Three teams—Los Angeles Rams, Detroit Lions and San Francisco 49ers—are now tied for the lead with five wins and two losses each.

Fish Nearly Distributed

The fall distribution of fish from Nebraska hatcheries has been nearly completed, the State Game Commission reported Wednesday.

Remaining on the fall schedule is the release in Swanson Lake of several loads of fish from the Benkelman and Valentine hatcheries.

The fish are being withheld until Swanson gets a little more water, Supervisor Glen Foster said.

Duck Stamp Sales Down

Dry conditions which prevailed throughout much of the state last winter were reflected this fall in the decrease in duck stamp sales, State Game Commission officials said Wednesday.

Duke University's basketball team will play in two invitation tourneys during the Christmas holidays—the University of Kentucky Invitational, Dec. 21-22, and North Carolina State's Dixie Classic, Dec. 28-30.

Carter Remains Strong Favorite in Montreal Go

MONTREAL (AP) — Jimmy Carter, a strange in-and-out champion, will defend his lightweight crown here tonight against Montreal's Armand Savoie in a 15-round bout that may set a new indoor Canadian gate record of $70,000.

"I expect $70,000 and it may go higher than that," promoter Eddie Quinn said. "We had an advance of more than $36,000 this morning." A $70,000 gate would require about 12,000 fans.

Carter remained a firm 13-5 favorite to beat the rangy, black-haired French Canadian in their no-television, no-radio fight at the Montreal Forum. New York Jimmy was favored despite the fact Savoie had won a non-title decision over him nine months ago.

• • •

"I EXPECT to beat him again tonight," Armand said before the weigh-in. "Particularly if he telegraphs his punches with certain foot movements again. I'm in much better shape than I was last February."

If 24-year-old Savoie achieves an upset in Montreal's first world title fight in 22 years, he will be the first Canadian boxer to wear the 135-pound crown.

If Savoie wins he must defend against Carter within 60 days.

But Carter said, "There'll be no upset this time. Somehow, I fight a lot better when I'm defending the title. I can't seem to get steamed up to train hard for over-the-weight matches.

Jimmy's record this year certainly bears out that statement. The 29-year-old champ lost non-title decisions to Savoie, Eddie Chavez and obscure Johnny Cunningham. But in his two title defenses he stopped Tommy Collins in the fourth round and Georgie Araujo in the 13th.

Jimmy was explosively impressive in these defenses. He floored Collins 10 times and Araujo three times.

Armand is rated only sixth among the world's 135-pound contenders, but he got tonight's title opportunity because of his February victory over Carter and because of his Canadian drawing power. He will get but 12½ per cent of the net gate, while Carter lops off the lion's share with a guarantee of $25,000.

Carter and Savoie are good punchers. Carter knocked out 25 of his 86 opponents, but he lost 17 bouts—one by a kayo—and had seven draws. Savoie stopped 25 of his 61 men. He lost 13 times—once by a kayo—and had five draws.

NCAA Meet Wrapped Up

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association Council, concluding a two-day meeting here Wednesday, was told by a special NCAA committee that televising of basketball games is not a national problem and immediate action is unnecessary.

Action on the committee report was deferred until the Jan. 6-8 NCAA convention in Cincinnati.

A public relations committee for the NCAA was partially appointed with three of the 10 men named.

H. T. Everest, faculty athletic representative of the University of Washington, was selected chairman to serve with Wilbur C. John, athletic director at UCLA, and Commissioner Reeves Peters of the Big Seven Conference.

Williamson Claims He Can Stop Illinois Duo

CHICAGO (AP)—Ivy Williamson, Wisconsin football coach, has the best secret in the Big Ten.

"It's not impossible to stop Caroline and Bates of Illinois," he said today. "It's just difficult."

Williamson would not elaborate on how the two Illinois sophomore halfbacks, J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates, can be stopped.

If Wisconsin can collar the pair Saturday at Madison, Wis., the Badgers should defeat Illinois and scramble the Big Ten title chase and Rose Bowl outlook.

Wisconsin, ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl, has been defeated only once.

Coach Ray Eliott of Illinois said Rose Bowl talk is banned for his team and then proceeded to wax poetic over Wisconsin.

"Wisconsin is one of the finest teams in the country," he said. "It has two wonderful fullbacks, Alan Ameche and Chuck Thomas, four fine halfbacks, Jerry Witt, Harland Carl, Bob Gingrass and Clary Bratt; a terrific quarterback, Jim Miller, and a beautifully moving line."

If Williamson can gear the Badgers to stop Caroline and Bates he will be the first Big Ten coach to do it this year. They have combined for 1,579 rushing yards. Bates has scored 11 touchdowns, two short of a school record first set by Red Grange in 1923.

Caroline has accounted for 1,354 yards in all phases—rushing, kickoff and punt returns, pass interceptions and receptions. This over-shadows Grange's unofficial record of 1,260 set 30 years ago.

RAS SAMARA—He will meet Emil Dusek in one of the preliminary matches at the Fairgrounds wrestling card Thursday night. The main event will pit Vern Gagne against Bob Orton. A third bout will have Steve McGill facing Richard Dusek. Bob Sauer will referee with the first match at 8:30.

Deer Permits Soon

Nebraska's 5,300 deer hunters for '53 can look forward to receiving their special deer permits soon. Game Supervisor, Lloyd Vance of the Game Commission, said it is planned to have all deer permits in the mail around the middle of the month.

Husker Freshmen 2-Milers Beat CU

Nebraska freshmen defeated Colorado 16-20 in a two-mile postal track meet, Husker Track Coach Ed Weir said Tuesday. In a two-mile event, the team with the lowest points wins.

In a postal meet, teams run on their own home courses, then exchange results by mail.

Husker Bill Poehling, Valley, finished first with a time of 10 minutes 16 seconds. Tom Ruckman of Alliance, was fourth with a time 10:45; Lee Carter, Rupert, Idaho, fifth with 10:50, and Jim Batic, Hay Springs, sixth with 10.55.5.

J. V. Sikes May Resign From KU

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—There are unconfirmed reports that Jules V. Sikes will resign as University of Kansas football coach the week after the season closes.

Kansas has won two games and lost six this year—the worst of six seasons under Sikes. His overall record at Kansas is 33 victories and 17 defeats.

Omaha Coach Speaker

OMAHA (AP)—Tom Brock, assistant football coach at Omaha University, will give the feature address at the Early, Ia., High School Athletic Banquet Monday night.

Baseball Plan Set By Celler

Reserve Clause Is Under Fire

LONDON (AP)—An American congressman has drawn up a four point program which he says baseball must follow unless it wants Congress to intervene.

Emanuel Celler, a Democrat from Brooklyn who in 1950 headed a committee investigating monopolistic practices in baseball, outlined his ideas during a stopover here en route to India. He had just learned of the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which declared baseball exempt from federal anti-trust laws.

Celler's program calls for:

1. Relaxing the reserve clause. "Binding a player for his entire baseball life, even against his will, is peonage," he declared. "No contract should be for more than five years without mutual consent."

2. Westward expansion of the major leagues. "Big league teams should be established further west of the Mississippi River, or a new Pacific Coast big league must be established to embrace cities such as Los Angeles and San Francisco."

3. Clarifying the job of the commissioner of baseball, who, he said, "Must represent not only owners, but players and public."

4. Protection of minor leagues against radio and television on major games.

Omaha U Without Starting Tackle

OMAHA (AP)—The Omaha University football team will be without the services of its first string tackle, Harry Johnson, when the Indians meet Doane College at Crete Friday night.

Johnson, sick with the flu, will be replaced by freshman Dale Geise.

Indian Coach Lloyd Cardwell said he is running the Omahans through hard drills this week since the Indians were idle last weekend.

Wesleyan Basketball To Get Early Start

Nebraska Wesleyan University basketball games will begin at 7:30 p.m. this year, Coach Irvin L. Peterson said Wednesday.

Peterson said the starting time has been advanced one half hour to give members of the squad more time to participate in post game campus activities.

Athletic Committee Chairman Marion Sederburg said prices for the 1953-54 season will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for high school and under age groups. Prices include federal taxes.

Ford Frick Deserves Credit

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Much of the credit for having forced through baseball's great victory before the Supreme Court is due Commissioner Ford Frick, who was determined from the day he took office that the game should not continue to operate in a twilight state.

Before Frick took over, the owners were a frightened, leaderless group of men who blanched every time a new lawyer sent in his card. They preferred to pay off—and did—rather than risk a full dress test of the constitutionality of the reserve clause.

Many of the magnates were convinced that they would lose the decision and that chaos would envelop the game. We know, because we heard them say so. Frick did not think so, and we had no patience with those who did. Before he was appointed commissioner he said once with sulphuric asides:

• • •

"THIS THING of being blackmailed about the reserve clause can't go on. If we're running an unlawful business we'd better find it out right now and look for a means to correct it. I don't believe the reserve clause is unlawful or that any court will find it so. Let's get this thing settle once and for all."

It is to be seriously doubted that Frick received much encouragement from the game's lawyers. They were understood, on the other hand, to believe in extreme moderation when dealing with any sort of instrument which affects the rights of individuals, as the reserve clause does. Frick must have been very convincing.

We have heard the complaint voiced that the new commissioner did not appear to be running the game with an iron hand; specifically, that he appeared to have let the recent demands of the players for certain reforms and benefits take him by surprise. Some critics thought he bungled preliminary dealings with the players' lawyer.

Well, the truth is that the suddenness with which the storm blew up did catch Frick somewhat unprepared—as it did also the players' representatives on the various clubs. Some of the latter were weeks finding out exactly what their legal employee was demanding in their behalf.

In Frick's defense, it may be said that he had been immersed to his ears for months in law books as he and the baseball barristers prepared to present their case before the highest court. He had not had much time for less important items. It may also be added that the time of the player flare-up was not lost upon the commissioner.

Now that the big test of his stewardship has been fought out and won, we ask leave to predict that Frick will go on to prove himself the most able of the three commissioners the game has had. He already has proved himself the most courageous. He has ideas for the improvement of the game, and his new prestige will afford him a nice club over obstructionists among the owners.

I May Be Wrong

By Walt Dobbins
Journal Sports Editor

Although the University of Colorado is the baby member of the Big Seven conference (1948) the Buffs were gridiron rivals of the Cornhuskers 55 years ago

Nebraska won five out the six games played between 1898 and 1907 but have topped the Buffs only once in the past five meetings although the 1952 skirmish ended in a 16-16 thriller

Located in picturesque Boulder, a city of 28,000 the University of Colorado has an enrollment of 4,500 men and 2,500 women

Probably the greatest player in Colorado grid history was Byron 'Whizzer' White, halfback on the 1938 Buff squad. He is the only CU player to be accorded All American honors except End Don Branby who made the grade on some selections last season

Eight Colorado players have been honored on All Big Seven teams this select group including Harry Narcisian halfback and Ed Pudlin end 1948 Charles Mosher end and Merwin Hodel halfback 1950-51 Jack Jorgenson tackle and Tom Brookshier halfback 1951 Don Branby end 1951-52 and Zack Jordan halfback 1952

Dal Ward has lost several men throughout the current season on account of injuries. Homer Jenkins was hurt early in the year after a brilliant start while Carroll Hardy and Ronnie Johnson have been sidelined at various times. Both will be ready for the Husker game Saturday

Honor 1913 Team

Saturday's battle with the Buffs at Memorial Stadium will be Homecoming Day. On this occasion the members of the late L. O. Jumbo Stiehm's 1913 squad of 40 years back will be honored.

This team topped Minnesota 7-0, Iowa 12-0, Kansas 9-0, Washburn 19-0, Kansas Aggies 24-6, Haskell 7-0, Ames 18-9, and Nebraska Wesleyan 42-7.

It was quite a squad captained by Lee Hurd Purdy and including such outstanding performers as Vic Halligan, Max Towle, Mother' Abbott, and Dick Rutherford.

The big feather in the Husker cap was the 7-0 victory recorded over Minnesota a feat that will long be remembered by the old timers.

Nebraska lined up against the mighty Gophers with Gordon Beck at left end, Vic Halligan left tackle, C. I. Ross at left guard, Bob Thompson at center, I. I. Abbott at right guard, R. I. Cameron at right tackle, Guy Mastins at right end, Max Towle at quarterback, Dick Rutherford and Len Purdy at the halfbacks and Warren Howard at fullback.

The victory over the Gophers was achieved via the air lanes, Towle uncorking a pass to Beck in the third period for the only score of the ball game. Towle booted the extra point.

There were several grid greats on the Minnesota squad including Bernie Bierman, Ossie Solem, Clark Shaughnessy, Bob Tollefson, and George Rosenthal.

Nebraska played the entire game without a single substitution. Fumbles by Shaughnessy and Bierman helped the Husker cause and Owen Frank's scouting report and the defense set up against the famous Minnesota shift were all factors in the great Husker triumph.

Wichita Ball Park

Despite the fact that Sen. Ed Johnson says the Western League is all set to operate with the same club personnel as last season, Wichita is confronted with a major problem.

The campaign to raise funds for the building of a new baseball park is going to be one tough job. In the first place the costs will prevent the sponsors from locating within the Wichita city limits. (Lawrence Stadium is within walking distance of the downtown business section.)

It will cost at least $25,000 for a site suitable for the stands and parking area. It will take another $25,000 or so for proper lighting. Erection of unroofed stands to seat 5,000 fans, fencing, sodding and landscaping of the parking area will run into really important money. Total cost of the plant would undoubtedly be in excess of $150,000.

That's a lot of moola.

Great Scarlet Tackles Come in Pairs

By WALT DOBBINS
Journal Sports Editor

Do Nebraska's greatest tackles come in pairs?

It would seem so if you were to trace back through 53 seasons of Cornhusker football to 1900 when Walter C. (Bummy) Booth started the Scarlet through a succession of winning campaigns.

Oldtimers will tell you that John Westover had few peers as a lineman and teamed with Cy Mason give the Huskers a pair of tackles that had a great deal to do with Nebraska's only undefeated and unscored on eleven of 1902.

Westover and Mason a great pair to draw to.

● ● ●

THEN A FEW years later along came E. O. (Jumbo) Stiehm, the Huskers most successful coach. His 1913 team with a record of eight straight victories including a 7-0 verdict over Minnesota will be honored Saturday at the Homecoming Day clash with Colorado's Buffaloes.

Stiehm's tackles were Vic Halligan in all time great at NU, and Roy Cameron.

Two years later Jumbo's undefeated 1915 juggernaut headed by Guy (The Champ) Chamberlin and Dick Rutherford operated behind another great pair of tackles. They were Jim Corey and Ed Shaw, later to be elected to lead the 1916 and 1917 varsity squads in that order.

The writer first as a punk kid and later as a newspaperman, has seen the parade of Husker grid talent from 1913 to date. It is quite difficult to pick the best pair of tackles (on the same team) when one recalls the fine NU teams of 1921 and 1925.

● ● ●

WHO CAN say that Link Lyman and the late "Bub" Weller, 1921 were better than Ed Weir and Lon Stiner, 1925? Lyman and Weller were giants' but aggressive and fast for their size. Link went on to play pro football for many years and Weller performed briefly with the professionals.

Weir, exceptionally fast, twice an All America choice and twice elected captain of his team, 1924-1925 gained the most outside recognition. Stiner was better than good and captained the 1926 varsity.

The three best of all time? Westover, Lyman, Weir—at least that's the way the lettermen voted a few years back.

Weir teamed with Hank Bassett in 1923 and with Cecil Molzen in 24.

● ● ●

ERNIE BEARG had a pair of old reliables in 1927 in the two Rays, Richards and Randels and Glenn Munn teamed with Richards as a first stringer in 1928.

It doesn't seem so long ago that Fred Shirey and Ted Doyle were playing havoc with enemy linemen but a checkup shows they performed on Bibles 1936 squad. The 1933 tackles were Gail O'Brien, Leland Copple, Russ Thompson, Walt Pflum and Carroll Reese, a pretty fancy array, I must admit.

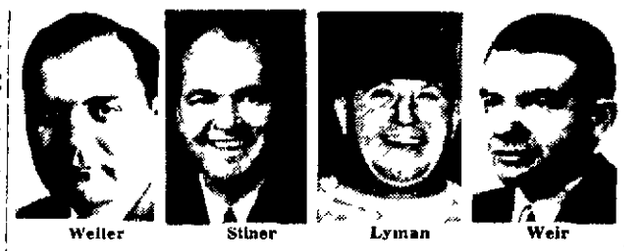

One of the elements that made "Biff" Jones' 1940 Rose Bowl squad a potent outfit was depth—and "The Biffer" most assuredly had it at tackle with Forrest Behm, Royal Kahler, Vic Schleich and Clarence Herndon. Jones used the two platoon system or rather the team unit substitution idea. Inserting his No. 2 group at the end of the first and third periods.

Now the reason for bringing up somewhat abbreviated history of Husker tackles is not only to show that many Nebraska teams of the past were blessed not only with one fine tackle but a pair of them is to remind you that Bill Glassford has two excellent forwards on his current squad.

YOU WILL have to look pretty far and certainly outside the conference to find a pair of tackles of the caliber of Ted Connor and Jerry Minnick. Each standing well over six feet and weighing around 220 or so, these two huskies from Hastings and Cambridge, respectively, have played excellent ball all season.

Minnick is a tough hombre on defense while Connor may possibly overshadow him going both ways. Both boys are seniors and if Ted is ready to go Saturday don't fail to watch these two men in action in the final games of their career as Cornhuskers.

Few in the bygone days surpass them in genuine all around ability.

Weller — Stiner — Lyman — Weir

Notre Dame Rejects Bid

CHICAGO (AP)—At least one effort has been made to organize a conference of nine or 10 major football colleges whose games would be televised weekly in defiance of the NCAA restriction policy, it was learned Wednesday.

Athletic Director Ed (Moose) Krause of Notre Dame confirmed that the Irish had been approached to join such a conference but said that the proposal had been rejected.

● ● ●

'OUR POLICY presently is to remain a member of the NCAA," Krause said "and in order to join such a conference each member would have to resign from the national organization."

Krause said that Notre Dame did not wish to sever relations with the NCAA despite its consistent objections to the current NCAA program of permitting one game per week on a national television network.

Krause refused to reveal what school approached the Irish.

However it would be feasible for any nine or 10 major colleges to get out of the NCAA, form a football conference and permit each member to make its own television arrangements or have the conference handle television arrangements for the group.

Notre Dame has sought to sell its television rights as an individual school ever since the NCAA policy was established.

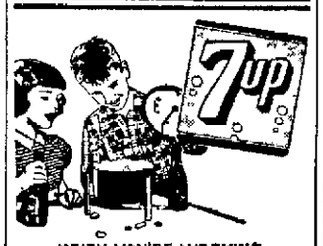

Any college which joined such a conference as was proposed to Notre Dame would have to relinquish its rights to compete in NCAA tournaments, such as the national basketball meet, track meet, swimming and wrestling.

Iowa Season Under Way

DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa hunters opened up on pheasants in 92 counties at noon Wednesday with the state conservation commission's prediction they will have as many targets as last year.

The commission said the long summer and fall drought has had little if any effect on the pheasant population and there are as many birds as last year.

The pheasant season will be open until Nov. 22 in the short zone counties in the southern part of the state and until Dec. 5 in other counties. Hunting will be from noon until 4:30 p.m.

Midwestern Rushing Is High Point

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaving the explanations and interpretations to anyone who wants to try, the NCAA Service Bureau came forth Wednesday with facts showing that among major college football teams forward passing is being stressed on the seacoasts this season and running games in the middle of the country.

The top 10 passing teams in this week's statistics are Stanford, California, College of Pacific and Washington bordering the Pacific; Georgia, Dartmouth, Fordham, Holy Cross and Columbia along the Atlantic Seaboard; and Mississippi, hard by the Gulf of Mexico.

The top 10 rushing teams, in contrast, are led by Illinois, Cincinnati, Texas Tech, Oklahoma and West Virginia, and also include Rice, Notre Dame and Colorado A&M.

And underlining the situation are the events of last Saturday, when it snowed in the East and broiled in California. The Columbia - Dartmouth, California-Washington and Stanford-Southern California tussles were the top passing games of the 1953 season. But at the actual geographic center of the United States, Kansas and Kansas State played a game in which, between them, they tried just 10 passes and completed only 1, for 16 yards.

Fairbury's Kotas Is Honored

By JOE SINGLETON
Journal Sports Writer

The Kearney weatherman should receive The Journal's College Player of the Week honors for doing what no football team has been able to do since 1951: Stop Peru. However, since he is not in good standing with the Nebraska College Conference for showing out the Kearney-Peru tilt last Friday and Saturday and forcing a cancellation, we picked Delbert Kotas of Fairbury Junior College instead.

The hard-running backfield ace from Davenport has been long overdue for recognition. Offensive ace of the Bombers' 4-JC second-place finishers, Kotas has, week after week, led Fairbury in point-production with long, sparkling runs. His performance last week was not exceptional—for Kotas. Scoring 20 points in Fairbury's rout of Norfolk, Kotas booted two extra points and crossed the double stripe three times on runs of 19, 16 and 13 yards.

There were other stars last week:

Keith Richardson, Fairbury, quarterback, scored the 60-0 defeat of the Blackhawks, scored one touchdown and passed for two others.

Bruce Otto, Norfolk, end, set up the only Blackhawk TD by catching a 17-yard aerial and was one of the bright defensive spots in a losing line.

Harvey Dutton, Scottsbluff, guard, also played on a losing team, but used his 150 pounds effectively in holding Northeastern of Sterling, Colo., to a 25-14 win.

Jim McWilliams, Midland, end, played his usual fine defensive game and also caught a 40-yard pass for the Warriors initial tally against Nebraska Wesleyan.

Eldon Tanaka, Midland, guard, was the standout in the middle of the line as the Warriors turned back NWU, 19-13.

Don Crowder, Doane, quarterback, latched on to the opening kickoff and raced it back 80 yards for a marker, setting the pace of Doane's victory over Chadron, 30-0. Crowder also scored from the three and booted four conversions.

James Kay, Wayne, halfback, also went wild on a kickoff by racing it back 78 yards to set up the winning score against Hastings.

Lyan Sarrens, Dana, kept Buena Vista from whitewashing the Vikings by scoring six points and holding the Towans to a six-point margin.

Bob Bower, Luther, was easily the best guard on the field despite losing 19-12 to Worthington, Minn.

Joe Hennig, Concordia, was one of the top three offensive backs against Sterling, Kan., but really won laurels for a pass interception good for 69 yards, making possible a second period score.

Bankers Told 'Aid Small Business'

OMAHA (AP)—President Everett D Reese of the American Bankers Association said bankers should pay more attention to small businessmen

Reese said that bankers must accept risks as part of their business or face a real clamor for more government credit and guarantees in the event of a recession

He spoke at the opening session of the 56th Nebraska Bankers Association convention

The convention ends Wednesday with election of officers and committee reports and various section meetings

Landowners to Fight Highway Relocation

BASSETT (AP) — Rock County landowners reported through their attorney that they will bring their complaint against relocation of part of Highway 183 to the new State Highway Advisory Board

Atty John Dougherty group spokesman said some of State Engineer L N Ress statements regarding the relocation are misleading

The landowners claim the landowners in the area are 'dependent on the present location of the highway

Rogers Pollution Order Is Backed

Statehouse sources said they believed the State Health Department could order Omaha, Nebraska City and other communities to stop polluting the Missouri River "if there was reason to believe that the health of the people downstream was being affected

The sources commented on a statement by Owen Cotton executive director of the Association of Omaha Taxpayers, Inc Cotton said Dr E A Rogers, acting state health chief, did not have authority to order the towns to stop discharging untreated sewage and industrial wastes into the river

Rogers had sent letters to the communities giving them until June 30 to report on what measures had been taken The other towns are Niobrara, South Sioux City, Dakota City, Bellevue and Plattsmouth

But Cotton suggested that the city officials 'reject this order'

4 Storm Sewer Projects Offered

Four storm sever projects, three representing extensions to the east of the major Harrison Street undertaking, are recommended for priority for construction during the current fiscal year by a special City Council committee and presented by C. W. D. Kinsey, chairman, and Joseph E. Fenton.

These undertakings were selected for preference from a list of 33 presented by the engineering department under date of Sept. 21, 1952. The entire program then listed carried a price tag of $1,067,200. Priorities chosen by the committee are estimated at $188,000, leaving a $12,000 safety cushion within the $200,000 storm sewer appropriation.

PROJECTS favored for now are:

Harrison, 11th to 14th, concrete box, $80,000.

16th and Perkins and 17th and perkins, adequate structures connecting open channels, $20,000.

Open channel in Harrison, 14th to 17th, $8,000.

Cotner Blvd., South to Sumner, concrete box and pipe, 1,400 feet, $80,000.

* * *

THE ABOVE projects will contribute toward the drainage of more than 1,000 acres. Piece work is necessary because of limited funds. The Harrison street storm sewer improvements to date cost $130,000 and include an open ditch from 4th and Park to 7th and Harrison and a concrete box sewer 10½ feet wide and six feet deep in Harrison from 7th to 11th.

After the work for the coming year is completed there will remain on the Harrison waiting list a structure at 20th and Van Dorn and channel from 17th to 20th through Irvingdale Park.

The Cotner sewer will connect with a sewer running down Cotner from South to Antelope, constructed in 1933-34. It will drain in excess of 200 acres.

Mrs. J. Irene Vance Funeral Is Friday

The funeral of Mrs. J. Irene Vance, 54, of 3110 Vine, who died Tuesday, will be at Grace Methodist Church at 2 p.m. Friday with Dr. Harold C. Sandall officiating.

Mrs. Vance

Mrs. Vance, a resident of Lincoln for 30 years, was born in Fremont. She attended Wesleyan University and was a member of Grace Methodist Church, its Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Lincoln Council of Federated Church Women and the Woman's Wesleyan Educational Council of Nebraska.

She is survived by her husband, James P.; daughter, Mrs. Ruth E. Peterson; son, James R.; mother, Mrs. Effie L. Burrill of Pasadena, Calif.; sisters, Helen A. Burrill of Joliet, Ill., and Mrs. Harold J. Kiser of Pasadena, Calif.; brother, Rex L. Burrill of Glendale, Calif., and three grandsons.

Community Center Plans Open House

An open house will be held Friday from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Southwest Community Center at 1145 High.

Movies will be shown for children attending and there will be a sewing club demonstration for adults.

Exhibits of woodwork and the BB-gun will be on display. Refreshments will be served.

The Community Center offers special activities for boys and girls, as well as club meetings and activities for adults.

Center director is Mrs. Laura Dougherty.

Grace Lutheran Adopts Budget

Grace Lutheran Church elected three trustees and adopted a budget of $38,598 for 1954 at its annual business meeting.

Elected to three year terms as trustees were Joe Cihlar, Louis Langhus and Earl Christiansen.

The budget includes $17,565 for current operating expenses, $9,013 for benevolences and $12,020 for debt amortization and improvements.

Garden Club Adds 12 New Directors

Twelve new members of the board of directors were elected by the Garden Club of Lincoln at a recent meeting.

Dr. C. C. Wiggans of the University of Nebraska horticulture department was guest at the meeting showing slides of lilly and chrysanthemum projects on the garden plot at the Agriculture College Campus. This project is sponsored by the Garden Club.

Elected to the board of directors were:

Mrs. Frank Smutte, Don Whelan, H. J. Wolfe, Mrs. Carl Heinz, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Colin, Mrs. Warren F. Day, Mrs. A. H. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Vanz, Mrs. Everett Angle, Ivan Sunderman.

Scout Leader Fired

MANCHESTER, England (AP)—Mrs. Edith Holt, 44, said she has been fired as a girl guide leader here because she is a Communist.

Mrs. Holt took charge of the 28-strong First Moss Nook company of the guides—British Girl Scouts—four months ago. "I am a Communist," she told reporters. "But I love children and I love my fellow men."

Third Petition Attacks Road Fund Spending in Johnson County

By AL REMMENGA
Journal Staff Writer

TECUMSEH — The third petition in less than a month has been filed in Johnson County District Court charging that Johnson County Commissioners have failed to follow the "progressive improvement of rural mail routes" and that certain contracts entered into by the commissioners are "illegal and void on the grounds that the contracts provide for payment from money earmarked for other specific purposes."

The latest claim, filed by Grace Bright of Sterling a Johnson County taxpayer asks that the claim of Roy G Behrens for $1 082 25 for road grading allowed by the county commissioners on Oct 6 be denied

In the petition she claimed that Johnson County Board Chairman John G Huls of Sterling who does business as the Huls Construction Co furnished equipment for the road work done by Behrens This, her petition claims is contrary to state law which prohibits a county officer to profit from any contract entered into by the county board

Her claim also stated that some excessive and not the usual going charges were made for the work performed by Behrens, but these were not listed

The two miles of highway improved by Behrens are described as being rural mail routes This is given as another reason why the claim of $1 082 25 against the farm to market' fund of the county is improper The petition claims the one-mill tax levy voted in April of 1952 does not list rural mail routes as highways to be improved from that fund This it continues, automatically disallows mail route improvement claims according to the state law which prevents transfer of farm to market funds to any other fund in the county

Earlier, the Tri-County Road and Bridge Improvement Association, representing some 300 residents of Otoe Johnson and Nemaha Counties secured a writ of mandamus against the Johnson County treasurer and commissioners to refrain from spending the monies of the mail route fund" That suit charged that the commissioners were not following the "progressive improvement of the rural mail routes as provided by law"

Later, Wayne C Johnson, a farmer near Talmage and a member of the Tri-County group filed a petition declaring that a contract entered into on Sept 9, 1953 between the county and the Kerm Construction Co of Tecumseh involving $12 813 09, was illegal because Commissioner Huls profited by the contract Huls allegedly furnished equipment to the Kerm Co

Meanwhile, the Johnson County Board issued a statement saying that they 'will comply with the law relating to rural mail routes in Johnson County, and have passed a resolution to improve all rural mail routes up five miles at the beginning and end of each route ", and asking that the writ of mandamus against them be dismissed

In a separate answer, County Treasurer Carl Kent said 'For want of information this defendant denies each and every allegation of the petition for a mandamus"

Farm Clinic Series Opens at Hastings

HASTINGS—L. F. Larsen, engineer in charge of the tractor testing lab at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, opened a series of farm clinics here.

The weekly sessions, sponsored by the Hastings Chamber of Commerce, will run through Dec. 7. Remaining clinics are:

Nov. 16—"Sprays, Grain Sanitation and Storage," by Dr. Ephriam Hixson of the College of Agriculture.

Nov. 23—"Fire Fighting Methods You Can Use on Your Farm" with demonstrations by State Fire Marshal Iverson and three members of his staff.

Nov. 30—"Highway Safety, Trailer, etc." by Capt. O. H. Witt of the State Patrol.

Dec. 7—"Fun Night for the Whole Family" planned by Jac DeMuth of Ayr.

Grain Tax Case Goes to Top Court

Trenton Firm Sees 'Havoc' in Decision

That the U.S. Supreme Court must overturn a Nebraska Supreme Court decision or "havoc" will be brought "to the entire grain business in Nebraska" is urged in a brief filed by the T. W. Jones Grain Company of Trenton.

The grain company, which lost a tax suit before the State Supreme Court, has filed a brief to support its petition for a writ of certiorari to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Also filed is a brief by the office of Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck, asking that the highest court refuse the grain company's petition.

Involved is the question of whether five train car loads of wheat, sold by the Trenton firm to the Kleean Grain Company of Kansas City, Mo., on Feb. 2, 1951, should have been taxed by the state of Nebraska on its assessment date of March 10, 1951.

THE GRAIN COMPANY has contended that although the grain wasn't moved from Trenton because railroad cars weren't available that it was in interstate commerce because of the sale contract and therefore couldn't be taxed by a state.

This contention was upheld in the Hitchcock County District Court but was reversed by the State Supreme Court.

Charles Bosley, attorney for the grain company, wrote in his U.S. Supreme Court petition:

"To sustain the decision of the Supreme Court of Nebraska would create intolerable confusion and hardship, not only upon this petitioner in this case, but upon all producers, purchasers and processors of grain.

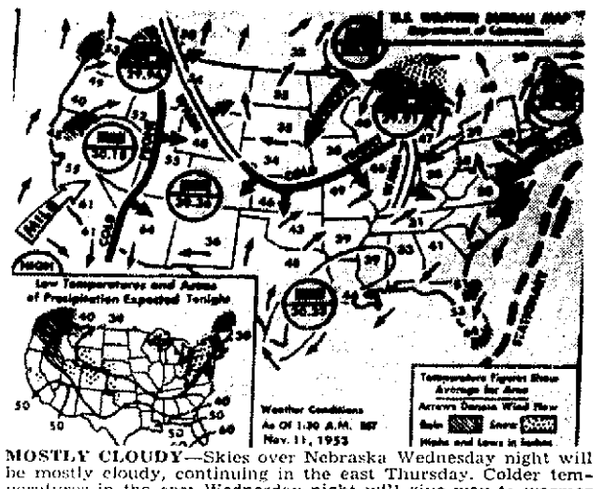

"It is well known that transportation fails occasionally and if the decision of the Supreme Court of Nebraska be the law, no grain dealer can carry on a regular market of grain immediately prior to a tax date for the reason that a breakdown of transportation would cause serious losses in the operation of business."

* * *

BOSLEY CONTINUED, "The only alternative to the detriment of all would be to close down the grain business a sufficient time prior to the tax date to insure that he would not be unjustly taxed upon grain which is sold and delivered in the regular course of business.

"For all grain dealers to be compelled to adopt such a course would bring havoc to the entire grain business in Nebraska," Bosley contended.

The state's brief, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. Dean Kratz, said the point involved had been decided in a Supreme Court case 67 years ago. Also, the grain in question had not been separated or set apart "and had not, by any stretch of construction, begun a movement in interstate commerce."

MOSTLY CLOUDY—Skies over Nebraska Wednesday night will be mostly cloudy, continuing in the east Thursday. Colder temperatures in the east Wednesday night will give way to warmer trends Thursday. Elsewhere snow flurries are expected in the eastern lakes region and northern and central Rockies. Rain showers are forecast for the Pacific northwest. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

County Seeks Federal Funds for Havelock

Federal funds for resurfacing North 14th and gravelling part of Havelock Avenue and Prairie Home Road are sought by the Lancaster County Commissioners.

Designation of 0.7 miles of 14th south of Highway 6, four miles of Prairie Home Road south of O and 2.75 miles of Havelock Avenue east as federal secondary roads would bring federal funds to match county funds of $30,000 for 14th, and $10,000 for each of the other roads.

Request for the designation was forwarded to the state bureau of roads by the commissioners.

State Women Deans Elect Willa Koenig

SEWARD — Miss Willa Koenig, dean of women at Concordia College, was elected president of the Nebraska Association of Deans of Women and Advisers to Girls at their annual meeting at Creighton University in Omaha.

Miss Koenig

The convention consisted of a panel discussion, "Better Use of Community Resources by the Schools," moderated by Fred Hill, Associate Superintendent of Schools, Omaha, a luncheon at the Creighton cafeteria, a business meeting, and tours of Creighton University and the Omaha Education Association apartment building.

Miss Koenig, a past vice presidednt, succeeds Miss Selma Hult, assistant principal of Whittier High School in Lincoln.

Other officers elected are Miss Catherine Campbell of Brownell Hall in Omaha, vice president; Miss Katherine Parks of the University of Nebraska, secretary, and Miss Jean Antes of Midland College at Fremont, treasurer.

School Tract Sold

The Board of Educational Lands and Funds reported that a 40-acre tract of state school land in Burt County has been sold for $200 an acre. Purchaser of the tract was Theodore Eriksen, who already owned adjoining land on two sides of the school land south of Craig.

Three NU Students To Lutheran Posts

Three University of Nebraska students were elected to offices of the Midwest Region of the Lutheran Student Association of America at the group's conference at the Lutheran Student House in Lincoln. About 100 delegates attended the meet.

Robert Mortvedt of Dell Rapids, S. D., a junior in the Teachers College, was named regional president. Janet Lindquist of Funk and Joyce Splittgerber of Albion, both College of Agriculture sophomores, were elected secretary and editor of the association's publication, respectively.

The Rev. Alvin M. Petersen, pastor to University Lutheran students, was re-elected advisor.

We've just got in our Christmas Hamiltons
—may we show them to you?
Isn't there someone specially dear to you . . . someone you've always meant to surprise with a special gift, like a truly fine watch? That wife you love so much . . . that husband you couldn't live without . . . that son or daughter you're so eternally proud of . . .
There never was a Christmas like this one to give a Hamilton. Of course, the name's been famous for years as "the watch of railroad accuracy"—thanks to the rigid standards of precision each Hamilton watch must meet. But never have you seen such beautiful styles as these newest Hamiltons!
Frankly, we're proud to show them off. And we'd be happy to help you select the right style for your special someone.
Know about our Hamilton Lay-Away Plan? Come in today and choose the Hamilton you want to give . . . we'll be glad to set it aside till Christmas under this special plan.
HARTMAN—18 jewels, sweep second, leather strap. 18K or 14K natural gold case. 18K, $225*; 14K, $175.*

Bankers Told U.S. Lending Will Stop If It's Unnecessary

OMAHA (AP)—If bankers want to keep the federal government out of the lending field, the advice of the president of the American Bankers Association is to make government lending unnecessary.

Everett D Reese, president of the Park National Bank of Newark, O, told the Nebraska Bankers Association Tuesday that bankers must accept risks as part of their business or face a real clamor for more government credit and guarantees

The ABA head said he is not predicting a recession in the foreseeable future but "the basis is already laid for the re-entry of the government into the lending field under the popular flag of small business, however, and we cannot be indifferent to the implications of this action"

He urged bankers to learn more about small business, its problems and needs and to serve small businesses constructively and resourcefully

Also on hand to address the meeting was Robert L Garner, vice president and general manager of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development.

The bank has loaned $1,750,000,000 in the last six years

Garner, whose office is in Washington, emphasized that the International Bank is not a give-away program.

"We don't make gifts," he said. "We figure we'll get our money back"

Purpose of the bank is to make loans to governments and private groups in order to finance industrial expansion

Sioux Murder Trial Plan Told

HARRISON (AP) — Sioux County Attorney W E Mumby said a special jury may be called in December to hear first-degree murder charges against two Mexican laborers

Benito Garcia and Salvador Martinez are charged in the death of Edwardo Zamora, 45, of Morrill, whose body was found floating in an irrigation ditch inside Scotts Bluff County last July Authorities trace the crime however, to a point in Sioux County

The two suspects have admitted to officers stealing 25 cents from Zamora but each claims the other committed the murder

Fog Blankets Paris

PARIS (AP)—Fog blanketed airports in Paris vicinity so thickly that passengers leaving France had to go by train to Brussels, or southward to the sunnier sections of the country.

Wanderer Found

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — A wandering buoy is home

A search vessel found the harbor marker Tuesday night 23 miles from Rosslare where a steamer struck it four days ago

Sidney Area Gets New Gas Well

SIDNEY (AP)—The Ohio Oil Co announced completion of another producing gas well in the West Sidney field

The company said its Westman No 1 had produced a volume of 8,250,000 cubic feet from the first Dakota sand The Westman is the tenth producer in the field in which only one unsuccessful well has been drilled

A 12th well the R Fleming No 1 has reached the coring and testing stage, but no reports were available

Ohio said it also is completing its Engelland No 1 for oil production in the D sand and has hopes of opening a new field seven miles northeast of Sidney The hole was carried to 4,755 feet, then plugged back to 4,525 when no show of oil was found in the lower formation

Kaiser Plant Bought by GM

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors has bought from Kaiser Motors the giant former bomber plant at Willow Run near Detroit The price was $26 million

Kaiser will move all of its operations to Toledo and the Willys-Overland plant there Kaiser bought Willys-Overland earlier this year

Until the move to Toledo can be completed, General Motors will lease to Kaiser the space now occupied by Kaiser Motors for a period not to exceed 12 months

GM had been leasing 1½ million square feet of the Willow Run plant since August for the production of Hydra-Matic transmissions Transmission output was halted when fire destroyed the GM transmission plant at Livonia, Mich, on Aug 12

Kaiser Motors will pay off immediately $26 613,000 of its indebtedness to the government This will be done by turning over to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation the entire proceeds of the sale, plus an additional $613 thousand

Kaiser Motors indebtedness to the government then will stand at $18,650 000 Edgar F Kaiser, Kaiser Motors president, said this will represent the "last remaining government loan on any Kaiser-managed property" At one time the Kaiser Motors indebtedness totaled $74 789,843

$500 Offer Made In Lear Mystery

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A $500 reward was offered for information as to the whereabouts of Clarence E Lear, 27-year-old bank clerk who disappeared mysteriously early last Wednesday at Thornton Beach

Lear, of Omaha, Neb, vanished in the darkness while helping Irene Taverner climb a cliff on the San Mateo County coast.

The reward was offered by three of the bank clerk's friends —Fred Crowley, Don Baker and Keith Rockwell. Crowley was with Lear and Miss Taverner on a trip to the coast

Livestock Run Cut by Holiday

OMAHA (AP)—The Omaha livestock run Wednesday was light for mid-week, cut down because most packing plants were observing the Armistice holiday. The cattle run was 4,000 calves 400, hogs 3,000, sheep 2,000

OMAHA

Cattle Fat cattle trade was generally active steady to 50 cents higher some sales up more with the upturn credited to short supply demand centered on choice and prime grades but some grading good and down also scored the day's full upturn only scattered lots of plain short feds and medium new crop steers over 1 200 lb were slow sellers Numerous sales of slaughter steers and yearlings ranged from $22 00@28 00 with better steers to $27 50 and $28 00 latter for 1 200 lbs plain killers $18 00 down fed heifers over 900 lbs sold at $24 50 The short run was no help to cow trade Cow classes looked steady canners and cutters $8 00@10 50 beef cows to $13 00 odd young cows to $14 00 bologna bulls again sold to $12 50 beef bulls to $10 00 veal calves again sold to $20 00 quotable even above that figure Scattered small lots of stocker and feeder cattle at $15 00@18 00 looked steady

Hogs Butchers sold steady to mostly 25 cents higher 180 270 lb weights $20 00 20 50 a load or better at $20 60 and $20 75 sows weighing 250 550 lbs cleared at $18 00@19 75, stags brought $16 50@18 00

Lambs Fat lambs sustained their third consecutive 50 cent break good to prime wooled $17 00@19 00 shorn with No 1 pelts $15 50 slaughter ewes held at $5 00@6 00 feeder lambs too scarce for fair test of trade carried a lower undertone

Trading Limit On Soyas to Be Doubled

WASHINGTON (AP) — The daily speculative trading limit on soybean futures will be increased from one to two million bushels, effective Monday

The Commodity Exchange Commission, consisting of the secretaries of agriculture and commerce and the attorney general, raised the daily trading limit on recommendation of the Commodity Exchange Authority

The speculative trading limit for soybeans now equals the limit in effect for wheat, corn and oats trading

J M. MEHL, authority administrator recommended the increase in September because of the increased maturity" of the soybean futures market and the well-sustained volume of trading in soybeans over the past two years

Soyeban trading on the Chicago Board of Trade has equaled or exceeded wheat trading for the past two years, and has surpassed corn and oats trading

NATION-WIDE, the University of Nebraska Agronomy Department reported, soybean production per bushel increased from 78 million in 1940 to more than 299 million in 1950 Some 4 800 000 acres were harvested in 1940, and 13 800 000 in 1950

In Nebraska not a high-ranking soybean producing state the number of acres harvested increased from 4 000 in 1940 to 50 000 in 1950 then passed the 100,000 mark in 1953 The three leading soybean states are Illinois, Iowa and Indiana.

Apartment Blaze Kills 4 Children

LOUISVILLE, Ky (AP) — Four small children died Wednesday when flames swept through a housing project apartment

Several other youngsters were cleared from the building a former Army barracks converted into apartments

The victims—the children of Mr and Mrs Robert Rayman Jr —were Irene Elizabeth, 6, Robert Walter, who would have been 4 in January, Leonard Anthony, 2, and Edward Merle, 1

The parents fled in a daze when they smelled smoke Rayman cut his wrist slightly when he smashed a window in a desperate effort to re-enter the apartment

Debentures Set at 101

Northern Natural Gas Co's $25 million issue of 3⅝ per cent debentures is now on the market, the underwriters having priced the 20-year securities at 101 and accrued interest, to yield 3.55 per cent

Northern will use proceeds to pay off short-time construction loans and for more expansion.

NLRB to Hear Plan

The National Labor Relations Board has agreed to consider the CIO Communications Workers' proposal for a single nation-wide bargaining unit for Western Electric's 80,000 production and maintenance employees now represented by various AFL, CIO and independent unions.

Bond Issue OKd For Omaha School

OMAHA (AP) — District 66 voters in a special election approved, 1,023 to 187 a $975,000 school bond issue which will provide expanded school facilities for the rapidly growing residential area on the western fringe of Omaha

A new grade school, addition of 11 classrooms to Westside High School and addition of room to two other schools is planned.

Light Plane Sets Altitude Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has disclosed that the world's first light airplane to harness jet power to its propeller has climbed more than seven miles to a new altitude record for small planes

The announcement said Bill Thompson test pilot for Cessna Airplane Co Wichita Kan, set the record in a single-engine Cessna XL19B His mark of 37 063 feet last July 16 wiped out the 30 203-foot record set in 1951 by a Piper Super Cub

The XL19B's Boeing engine is basically a jet but harnesses the normal exhaust thrust, through a secondary turbine to drive a conventional propeller.

An Interesting Position With This Newspaper

WANT AD SALESWOMAN

We want a much brighter than average young woman, married or single, between 21 and 35 who is at least a high school graduate. She must have lots of zip and a particularly pleasing telephone voice. She must spell and punctuate correctly, do simple figuring quickly and type reasonably well. Successful sales experience would be a good recommendation.
This is a permanent position and must be filled by a capable girl willing to learn and work. A 40 hour week with Tuesdays off. Pleasant office, a congenial group, paid vacations.
Salary and commissions make this position well above average and there are no limits to what a superior girl can accomplish. If you are interested in a permanent place in one of the most specialized fields in advertising doing useful, productive work and meet the qualifications above Call W R Golding between 4 and 5 pm to arrange an appointment. LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

BY ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.Sc.

1. No. Unless good intentions are carried out in performance and repeated until they become habits they can make a person worse because they will develop into the habit of failure. Regrets prevent a man from analyzing the cause and consequences of his mistakes and remedying them.

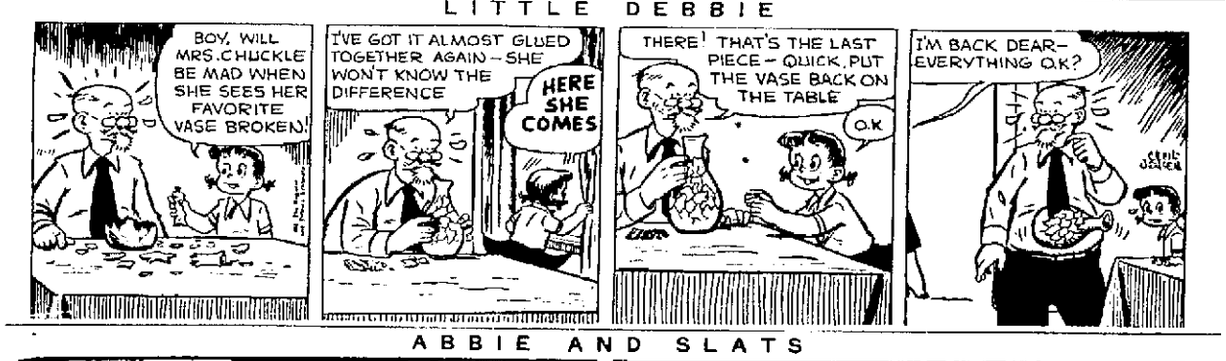

2. Yes. More than 300 researches have shown that the less intelligent a person is, the more likely he or she is to be a liar and cheater. The late Frederick Adams Woods proved that among the royal families of Europe, the abler rulers were more moral than the others. A character study of 10,000 children also showed that the less intelligent tended to be less truthful.

3. Strictly speaking, no. Men and women are often intensely attracted to each other at first sight. But you can't love someone you know nothing about. You can be thrilled and excited and this excitement may carry on into love that will last a lifetime. But the first thrill must deepen into sympathy, mutual understanding, similar views of life, marriage, home, religion and children. Otherwise the infatuation will soon fade away.

POINTS FOR PARENTS

BY EDYTH THOMAS WALLACE

Not This

This

Mother: "Don't fling yourself out of the room in that angry way! Come back here and listen to what I have to say and we'll settle this argument right now."

Mother: "We're both angry, so we'd better not talk any more about this now. Let's think and pray about it and see if we can talk it over more calmly tomorrow."

'Tis a wise parent who distinguishes between decisions which should be made immediately and those which are better postponed.
